PREVIOUS MATCH REPORT

HEMPSTEAD, N.Y. - The New York Cosmos remained atop of the NASL Spring Season standings after defeating Jacksonville Armada FC 2-0 at Hofstra University's Shuart Stadium Sunday evening.

Forward Jairo Arrieta scored his first Cosmos goal and midfielder Adam Moffat scored his second in as many matches.

Given the starting role up top for a second straight match, Arrieta opened the scoring in the 29th minute. Cosmos goalkeeper Jimmy Maurer played a ball deep inside Jacksonville Armada FC's territory that midfielder Juan Arango headed into space for Arrieta. The Costa Rican did not squander his chance, blasting a one-timer off the body of Armada goalkeeper Miguel Gallardo that trickled past the goal line for the go-ahead tally. Arrieta earned Emirates Man of the Match honors, while Maurer recorded his second consecutive shutout.

"We were fighting, and we found a goal in the first half that gave us some oxygen," said Cosmos Head Coach Giovanni Savarese after the match.

"I've tried to repay the coaching staff for trusting me," Arrieta said. "Juan [Arango] and I have formed a partnership where he moves ahead of me or vice-versa to try to confuse our opponent."

Halftime substitute Adam Moffat scored next to give New York some breathing room. In the 55th minute Croatian midfielder Niko Kranjčar, making his first Cosmos start, found a wide-open Moffat at the edge of the penalty area. The Scottish midfielder welcomed the look with a blast to the far side and past Gallardo.

"The second half was different. We looked more like ourselves," Savarese said. "The clean sheet for us was very important."

"It's great coming in and making an impact," said Moffat. "To have some effect on the game by scoring felt good."

Arrieta and Arango nearly combined for a third Cosmos goal in the 90th minute, when Arrieta weaved through defenders and left the ball for Arango. The ensuing shot was partially blocked and caromed off the crossbar.

With the victory the Cosmos improve to 2-0-0 on the young NASL season, remaining atop the Spring Season standings with six points and a three-goal advantage on the Carolina RailHawks in goal differential.

WORTH A NOTE

ROAD OPENER

Saturday's match against Indy Eleven is the first away fixture of the NASL season for the New York Cosmos, who opened 2016 with back-to-back wins at Hofstra's Shuart Stadium. The Cosmos head to Minnesota next before returning to New York for a May 1 encounter with the Carolina RailHawks.

SUPER JAIRO

Cosmos striker Jairo Arrieta, a new addition to the club for the 2016 season, leads the NASL with eight chances created. The Costa Rican international assisted on New York's first goal of the season, then bagged one of his own last Sunday in an Emirates Man of the Match performance against Jacksonville Armada FC. He has received consecutive NASL Team of the Week nods.

SHUTOUT STREAK

The Cosmos are the only team in the league that has yet to concede a goal this season. Cosmos goalkeeper Jimmy Maurer and the back line have blanked Ottawa and Jacksonville, allowing only three combined shots on target in two games.

ALL DRAWS

Six matches - three in New York, three in Indiana - and six draws. That's the entirety of the history between these two sides. The Cosmos came closest to taking a lead in the all-time series on Aug. 30, 2014. Two first-half scores had them up 2-0 at the break, but Indy stormed back at home, finding the equalizer in the 90th minute. The last time these two teams squared off was July 25, 2015, a 1-1 finish at "The Mike."

NEW YORK COSMOS vs INDY ELEVEN

DATE: 4/16/16

KICKOFF: 7:30PM

VENUE: MICHAEL A. CARROLL STADIUM

ABOUT THE COSMOS

The New York Cosmos are reigning champions of the North American Soccer League (NASL), having captured their second league title in three seasons and seventh overall on Nov. 15, 2015 with a 3-2 win over Ottawa Fury FC in The Championship Final at Hofstra University's James M. Shuart Stadium.

The Cosmos began play in 1971, spending 14 seasons in the NASL, winning five Soccer Bowl trophies and bringing some of the biggest names in world soccer to the USA. This included Pelé, Franz Beckenbauer, Giorgio Chinaglia and Carlos Alberto. It had been nearly 30 years since the Cosmos, an iconic global soccer club, played in a professional league. Yet throughout their absence, the club maintained a loyal and dedicated fan following.

On Aug. 3, 2013, the New York Cosmos returned to the NASL with a sellout win at Shuart Stadium, before embarking on a season that would see the Cosmos win the 2013 Soccer Bowl with a 1-0 victory against the Atlanta Silverbacks on Nov. 9, 2013 at Atlanta Silverbacks Park.

Raúl and Marcos Senna, legends at famed Spanish sides Real Madrid and Villarreal CF, each suited up in Cosmos colors for modern era championship runs, adding their names to the impressive list of global soccer stars to feature at the club.

The Cosmos submitted a privately-funded economic development proposal in 2013 to the State of New York to build a world-class 25,000-seat professional soccer stadium at Belmont Park. More information about the proposal and renderings can be found at newcosmosstadium.com.

ABOUT THE NASL

The new North American Soccer League (NASL) was officially founded in November 2009 when a group of 2nd division men's professional soccer team owners banded together to form North American Soccer League, LLC for the purpose of creating a team-owned and operated professional soccer league in the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico.

In February 2011, the NASL received provisional recognition from the United States Soccer Federation as the exclusive second division men's professional league (D-2) and the inaugural season kicked off on the evening of April 9, 2011.

The NASL member teams are:

- Carolina RailHawks
- FC Edmonton
- Fort Lauderdale Strikers
- Indy Eleven
- Jacksonville Armada FC
- Miami FC
- Minnesota United FC
- New York Cosmos
- Ottawa Fury FC
- Puerto Rico FC
- Rayo OKC
- San Francisco Deltas
- Tampa Bay Rowdies

For more information about the NASL, visit www.NASL.com. Follow the NASL on Twitter @NASLOfficial or Facebook at <http://www.Facebook.com/NASL.fan>.
