ELEVEN TRAVEL TO PUERTO RICO FC SEEKING

FIRST WIN OF THE SEASON: An impressive attacking display against Puerto Rico FC in Week 2 has Indy Eleven hungry to replicate their success on the goal front. Scoring three goals in a six-goal thriller at “The Mike,” the match marked the second straight contest Indiana’s Team put three on the scoreboard against “La Naranja.”

In their last trip to Bayamon, the “Boys in Blue” opened the 2016 Fall Season with a 1-1 draw thanks to a headed goal by forward Souleymane Youla from a Nemanja Vukovic free kick in the 92nd minute. Earning a foul on the left flank, “Vuko” lifted a swirling ball that was aimed at the back post, and the Guinean forward connected with a powerful header to beat the PRFC ‘keeper David Meves.

SERIES HISTORY:

July 2, 2016 – Puerto Rico FC 1 : 1 Indy Eleven

October 22, 2016 – Indy Eleven 3 : 0 Puerto Rico FC

April 1, 2017 – Indy Eleven 3 : 3 Puerto Rico FC

ELEVEN REWIND vs PUERTO RICO FC: Indy Eleven drew 3-3 with Puerto Rico FC in their 2017 home opener on April 1.

A thrilling match, the “Boys in Blue” got off to a hot start with forward Justin Braun opening the scoring inside five minutes. Indy drew a foul parallel to the top of the box on the right side, and left-back Nemanja Vukovic smashed a ball directly on the forehead of the two-time goalscorer on the day. From just inside the six-yard box, Braun pushed his header past “La Naranja” ‘keeper Trevor Spangenberg for a 1-0 lead.

Five minutes later, midfielder Ben Speas produced a beautiful chip over Spangenberg to double the lead. Justin Braun split the defense with a perfectly timed through ball that Speas latched onto, who then chipped on onrushing Spangenberg for his second goal in as many games.

Momentum shifted Puerto Rico FC’s way in the 24th minute when the visitors pulled one back on Conor Doyle’s strike. Playing a quick one-two with his strike partner Hector Ramos, Doyle picked his spot from a tight angle to cut the deficit in half. As the away side continued to press, they were awarded the first of two penalties on the day in the 45th minute. Hector Ramos stepped up to the spot, and though Jon Busch did well to save the initial attempt, Ramos beat home the rebound to level the score at two.

INDY ELEVEN AT PUERTO RICO FC – SATURDAY, APRIL 8, 2017

Indy Eleven came out of the halftime break pressing “La Naranja,” but when the travelling side broke away on a counter attack via midfielder Jairo Puerto, they were awarded a second penalty after Indy GK Jon Busch was judged to have clipped the winger. Conor Doyle took his chance from 12 yards out and sent Busch the wrong way to give his team their first lead of the afternoon.

As Indy settled in possession, they fought their way through the PRFC defense and created a number of chances. One of those chances fell their way in the 75th minute, when the forward Braun made excellent connection with a bouncing ball and lashed an effort past Spangenberg.

In the dying moments of the match, further drama ensued when forward Eamon Zayed was judged to have been offside on an initial pass from Craig Henderson that ended in Justin Braun putting the ball in the back of the net. A wild 90 minutes saw Indy earn their second point on the year and extend their home unbeaten streak to 19 straight league games.

Heading into Week 3, Braun’s two goals have him top the scoring charts, while his one assist has him tied with Ben Speas and seven others to lead that category.

MILDSTONE FOR RING: Captaining his side in the 3-3 draw vs. Puerto Rico FC on April 1, Indy Eleven midfielder Brad Ring earned the 50th start of his career with the “Boys in Blue” in his fourth year with the club.

Ring started 10 of 12 games in the inaugural 2014 season, scoring one goal in that span. Ring then saw significantly more of the field and started 38 of 48 games between the 2015 & 2016 seasons, racking up over 3300 minutes in the process.

FAMILIAR FACES: Much like at the beginning of the 2016 season, Indy Eleven head coach Tim Hankinson kept just over half of the previous year’s squad – including 13 in 2017 from the team that reached The Championship Final.

Goalkeepers Jon Busch and Keith Cardona return after manning the sticks in goal. A back line that combined with the ‘keepers for a club record 11 clean sheets in one year, defenders Marco Franco, Colin Falvey, Lovel Palmer, and Nemanja Vukovic also made their way back. In the midfield, Indy Eleven “originals” Brad Ring and Don Smart return, as do Daniel Keller, former Mexico international Gerardo Torrado, and Sinisa Ubiparipovic. In the forward spots, the duo that combined for 23 goals and 11 assists in the Combined Season is back in Eamon Zayed and Justin Braun.

FAMILIAR SIGNING: A new member of the Indy Eleven squad will be a recognizable one in the form of ex-Minnesota United FC midfielder Ben Speas.

The 26-year-old midfielder featured 26 times for the Loons (17 starts) and scored four goals while adding three assists in 2016. Prior to his move to Minnesota, Speas spent four years with the Columbus Crew as a Home-Grown Player. Inking his original deal in 2012, Speas developed in the Columbus Crew Academy not far from his home of Stow, Ohio.

ZAYED AIMING HIGH: Indy Eleven FW Eamon Zayed took sole ownership of the team’s all-time scoring record last season when he bagged 15 goals in 31 appearances, only two of which were converted from the penalty spot. The 33-year-old striker finished tied for 2nd place across the league in scoring alongside New York’s Juan Arango, the duo finishing three behind Minnesota United’s Christian Ramirez.

Check out the other “Boys in Blue” that finished the regular season in the Top 10 in various NASL statistical categories:
GOALS: Eamon Zayed (15, 2nd), Justin Braun (8, T-8th)
ASSISTS: Eamon Zayed (6, T-4th), Justin Braun (5, T-9th)
SHOTS: Eamon Zayed (69, 3rd), Justin Braun (47, T-7th)
CROSSES: Nemanja Vukovic (141, 5th)
GOALS AGAINST AVERAGE (min. 1,200 minutes): Jon Busch (0.93, 3rd)
SAVES: Jon Busch (70, T-5th)
WINS: Jon Busch (14, 3rd)
SHUTOUTS: Jon Busch (11, 3rd)

ELEVEN ADD REINFORCEMENTS IN WATSON-SIRIBOE AND MANNING:

Indy Eleven bolstered its defense with additions of defenders Kwame Watson-Siriboe and Anthony Manning in the months of February and March.

Manning comes off the back of a stint with the Portland Timbers and Timbers II in 2015 and 2016, where he featured in over 15 games on loan for the second side between the two seasons. Last year, Manning registered a full 90 minutes twice, including against 2017 Indy Eleven preseason opponent Swope Park Rangers.

Watson-Siriboe’s experience also extends from the MLS, where he spent the first six years of his professional career splitting time with Chicago Fire SC (2010-12), Real Salt Lake (2012-14) and New York City FC (2015). Most recently, the UCONN product returned home to Southern California to suit up with USL side Orange County SC. The

6'3 defender featured in nine matches during the back half of their season after signing on in August.

ALL IN ATTENDANCE, RAISE YOUR HANDS:

While Indy Eleven is seeking its first win on the field in 2017, the squad is looking to again top the league in attendance after averaging just over 8,300 per game at Michael A. Carroll Stadium in 2016.

After selling out nearly every game in both the 2014 & 2015 seasons, the “Boys in Blue” dipped below Minnesota United (8,500) and out of first place for the only time in the club’s now four-year existence.

TREVOR JAMES ADDED TO STAFF: Indy Eleven saw the ranks of its technical staff grow on March 23 with the addition of Trevor James as an assistant coach. The 58-year-old native of Norwich, England continues his 10+ year career in American soccer circles having spent time with Chicago Fire SC, Portland Timbers FC, & the LA Galaxy.

James made his move to America after filling various roles with Ipswich Town (youth academy), Colchester United (reserve team) and Cambridge United (first team coach/chief scout). James rounds out a technical staff that includes Hankinson and assistant coach Jon Busch.

WHO WILL BE INDY’S IRONMAN? With defender Nemanja Vukovic racking up the most minutes last year (2728 min. in 31 appearances), the question of who will be Indy’s Ironman in 2017 is a good one.

Forward Eamon Zayed wasn’t far behind at 2686 minutes in 31 appearances, and goalkeeper Jon Busch was a close 3rd with 2610 minutes in 29 appearances. With all three players returning and the addition of players like Ben Speas – who was in the Top 10 in minutes played for Minnesota United FC in 2016 – familiar faces from last year may be even more familiar when the team hits the park on Saturday night.

NEW ZEALAND INTERNATIONAL CRAIG HENDERSON BROUGHT INTO THE FOLD: Indy Eleven welcomes Kiwi international Craig Henderson into the midfield for 2017. The midfield man has represented the “All Whites” twice in international competition in his seven-year professional career.

Having spent all four years at Dartmouth College from 2006-2009, the 29-year-old returns to the States after stints in Sweden and Norway, where he spent time at Stabaek Fotball Club under the direction of former United States Men’s National Team head coach Bob Bradley. Henderson secured his move to Indy in February.

CAPTAIN FALVEY: After being introduced last January as one of the pillars the Indy Eleven roster would be built around, it comes as no surprise that DF Colin Falvey is again donning the captain’s armband for the “Boys in Blue.” The 31-year-old defender arrived after a year with former NASL side Ottawa Fury FC, where he helped to secure the 2015 NASL Fall Season championship. Falvey featured in 26 games (26 starts) in all competitions for Indy and helped the club to a record 11 clean sheets in 2016. Back again, Falvey will help lead a back line with the skill, grit, and passion that made him a sought-after centerpiece of the club’s 2015/16 roster overhaul.

NEW HOOSIERS HELPING: Two of Indy Eleven’s most recent additions and members of last fall’s 2016 Indiana Hoosiers squad, midfielder Tanner Thompson and goalkeeper Christian Lomeli make their professional debut as members of Indiana’s Team.

Thompson signs with Indy Eleven after four years at Indiana University in Bloomington, where he helped the Hoosiers to four straight NCAA Tournament appearances and a Conference Tournament Championship in 2013. As a senior, the native of Loomis, CA was named an NSCAA First-Team All-American and the Big Ten Midfielder of the Year along with First-Team All-Big Ten honors. The national standout chipped in eight goals and three assists in 2016.

Lomeli also ended his college career at Indiana University after spending the first two years with IUPUI, featuring in 12 matches including eight starts. For the Hoosiers, Lomeli posted four shutouts in seven appearances (seven starts) and boasted an impressive 0.53 goals-against average. In addition, Lomeli earned Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week for Nov. 1 and made three crucial saves in a 1-0 win over No. 23 Akron in the NCAA Tournament.

Thompson & Lomeli are two of three members of the Eleven roster with ties to the eight-time NCAA championship-winning program based out of Bloomington:

Brad Ring: 2005-08

Tanner Thompson: 2013

Christian Lomeli: 2013

OFFSEASON MAKEOVER: Indy Eleven head coach Tim Hankinson returns for the 2017 season .. and repeating a similar process from his inaugural year in charge, the roster was nearly split down the middle between returning players (13) and newcomers (7):

INDY ELEVEN AT PUERTO RICO FC – SATURDAY, APRIL 8, 2017

HANKINSON NAMED 2016 NASL COACH OF THE YEAR:

Indy Eleven's sideline boss Tim Hankinson earned the NASL's Coach of the Year award in 2016. The 61-year-old Hankinson garnered the honor for his turnaround of Indiana's Team, helping lift the side to the Spring Season championship, an unbeaten season at its home of Carroll Stadium and its first postseason berth in The Championship.

Returning for his second year in charge, Hankinson joined in December 2015, eventually mixing in 14 new players with 10 holdovers to craft Indy Eleven into one of the NASL's most consistent and dangerous teams in his first year in Indianapolis. Working with a similar philosophy in 2017, Indy welcomes the return of 13 members from the 2016 team and added a mix of both offensive and defensive talent ahead of their fourth season of play.

INDY CRUSHES CLUB RECORDS FOR WINS, POINTS IN 2016:

How big has Indy Eleven's turnaround been since 2014? Indy's Oct. 22 win over Puerto Rico FC was its 15th win in 2016 – one more than the 14 wins amassed in 57 games across the 2014 & 2015 campaigns combined. Indy Eleven set its new single-season points record just 18 games into the 2016 campaign, eclipsing its previous high of 33 (in 2015) with a 2-1 win over Rayo OKC on Aug. 13 that landed Indiana's Team on 34 points.

2016: 15W-10D-7L, 55 pts. (2nd/12 on Combined table)

2015: 8W-9D-13L, 33 pts. (9th/11 on Combined table)

2014: 6W-9D-12L, 27 pts. (9th/10 on Combined table)

INTERNATIONALLY KNOWN: While the Indy Eleven brass did plenty to back up its claim as "Indiana's Team" on the roster side, it also balanced out the other half of its motto – "The World's Game" – by stocking its roster with talent from across the globe. It starts with the return of internationals Lovel Palmer, Don Smart, Eamon Zayed, Sinisa Ubiparipovic, Gerardo Torrado, Nemanja Vukovic, and Colin Falvey, and the addition of extra international talent in the offseason now adds to the list.
