Marc Dos Santos was named the first-ever head coach of the San Francisco Deltas on August 17, 2016. Dos Santos brings over a decade of coaching experience to the Deltas, having developed players at both the professional and amateur levels in the US, Canada, Brazil, Portugal and Mozambique.

Dos Santos joined the Deltas from his head coaching role at Swope Park Rangers, the United Soccer League affiliate of MLS side Sporting Kansas City. Dos Santos formerly served as head coach for the Ottawa Fury's inaugural season in 2014 and led them to the North American Soccer League (NASL) Championship Final in 2015 where he was named Coach of the Year.

Dos Santos began his career in Portugal and Mozambique. In 2007, he was hired by his hometown team, the Montreal Impact, to lead the club's reserve team, Trois-Rivieres Attak FC. Under his leadership, the team won the 2007 Open Canada Cup and became 2008 CSL National Division champions, which led to him to being named the Impact's assistant coach and then their head coach. With Dos Santos, the Montreal Impact won the Canadian Championship in 2008, reached the Quarterfinals in the 2008-09 CONCACAF Champions League, and won the USL First Division title in 2009.

His appetite for new challenges led him to move to Brazil in 2012 and coach FC Primeira Camisa (U-20's) and SE Palmeiras (U-15's), culminating with a Copa do Brasil U-15 championship and then a head coaching position with Desportivo Brasil. He then returned to Canada in 2013 as the head coach of the Ottawa Fury.

A dual citizen of Canada and Portugal, Dos Santos holds a UEFA "A" coaching license and is fluent in four languages (English, French, Spanish and Portuguese). He and his wife Marie have three children.
