MATCH PREVIEW

The Carolina RailHawks (10W-7D-12L; 37pts; 7th place) travel to Indianapolis, Ind. to face the Indy Eleven (12W-10D-6L; 46 pts; 3rd place) Saturday at Carroll Stadium at 7:30 p.m. The RailHawks will have a chance to take the series on Indy's turf in a match that still has playoff implications. The clubs sit even this year, with a 4-1 RailHawks loss on June 11, however, redemption came for Carolina in the form of an exciting 3-2 home win on August 20. The win saw goals from Steven Miller, Omar Bravo and Matt Fondy. This weekend could see the hopeful return of Bravo, who has been sidelined with an injury the past two games. The forward has scored four goals, while also picking up an assist, this Fall Season.

LAST TIME OUT

The RailHawks are coming off a heartbreaking 1-0 loss to Rayo OKC on Wednesday night. Despite numerous close chances and an offensive onslaught from Carolina, goalkeeper Daniel Fernandes was able to preserve his cleansheet. Rayo OKC added a late goal in the 83rd minute as Michel's shot from the center of the box slipped past Sylvestre. With the loss, the RailHawks picked up a win, a draw and a loss this season against the NASL expansion team.

COMING UP NEXT

The RailHawks will be taking on Minnesota United FC on Saturday, Oct. 22 at 7:30 p.m. at WakeMed Soccer Park for the last home game of the season. This game will serve as Fan Appreciation Night and Diversity Night for the RailHawks. Thus far, the RailHawks and the Loons have split the series, with a 2-1 RailHawks win on April 2 and a 5-1 RailHawks loss on July 2.

COACH'S QUOTE

"Indy hasn't lost at home this year and that pretty much says it all. They won the Spring Season and are doing very well. They play a certain style that you have to be able to deal with, and they have been very effective. It will be a tough game no matter what."

-Colin Clarke

Colin Clarke enters his fifth season as head coach of the Carolina RailHawks after being appointed to the position on December 6, 2011. Clarke signed a new multi-year contract with the RailHawks on 2014. This contract makes Colin Clarke the longest tenured head coach in franchise history.

Prior to joining the RailHawks for the 2012 NASL Season, Clarke enjoyed successful seasons with league rival the Puerto Rico Islanders and FC Dallas of Major League Soccer. After a successful professional and international playing career, Clarke was hired to his first head coaching job with the Richmond Kickers by then Kickers General Manager and current RailHawks' President Curt Johnson in 1998. In his first season, Clarke led the RailHawks to a fourth place league finish accompanied by a run to the NASL Semifinals and a historic run in the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup highlighted by a victory over the 2011 and 2012 MLS Champion, LA Galaxy.

In the newly formatted 2013 NASL Regular Season, Clarke led the RailHawks to accumulate the most points over the Spring Season and Fall Season with an overall record of 12 wins, 7 ties, and 7 losses in league play. In 2013, Clarke and the RailHawks once again defeated the LA Galaxy in the Third Round of the U.S. Open Cup and avenged their Fourth Round loss in 2012 with a 3-1 victory over Chivas USA. The trip to the Quarterfinals of the 100th Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup was the RailHawks longest run in the annual tournament since their Semifinal run in 2007.

Over his two seasons in charge, Clarke led the Kickers to a 38 - 18 record. During the 2003 Major League Soccer season, Clarke took over as head coach of the Dallas Burn (later named FC Dallas) and turned around the club's fortunes, leading the club to a Western Conference first place finish in 2006. In 2007 Clarke joined the Puerto Rico Islanders. His tenure in Puerto Rico was highlighted by a league regular season championship in 2008 and a historic run to the semifinals of the 2008-2009 CONCACAF Champions League before losing to Cruz Azul in a penalty kick shootout. For his accomplishments over the course of the 2008 season, Clarke was named the league's Coach of the Year. In 2010, Clarke's Islanders made headlines in Champions League play once again when they defeated the LA Galaxy 4 – 1 at the Home Depot Center. Following their Champions League success, the Islanders went on to defeat the RailHawks in the USSF-D2 Pro League Championship Final. Clarke left his tenure with the Islanders with a league regular season championship (2008), a league championship (2010), two CFU Club Championships (2010, 2011), and five consecutive playoff berths (2007-2011).

Prior to coaching, Clarke established himself as one of the top players from Northern Ireland representing the country in the 1986 World Cup and experiencing a twelve-year playing career in England. Clarke began his playing career with Peterborough United of the Football League Fourth Division in 1981 and quickly ascended to England's First Division spending time with Southampton, Queens Park Rangers, and Portsmouth until a knee injury ended his playing career. Appearing 38 times for the Northern Ireland National Team, Clarke recorded a World Cup goal, a hat-trick, and finished his career as the all-time leading goal scorer for Northern Ireland (13). Clarke finished his professional career with 147 goals in 436 matches.
