ELEVEN WELCOME EDDIES TO “THE MIKE”

FOR LAST SPRING FLING: Despite often times struggling through the NASL's Spring Season slate, Indy Eleven will have the chance to end the league's opening 10-game sprint with a .500 record – that is, if the “Boys in Blue” can notch a second consecutive win when FC Edmonton invades IUPUI's Carroll Stadium on Saturday night. The 7:30 p.m. ET kickoff at “The Mike” will be surrounded by the team's second annual “Indiana Soccer Heritage & Champions Night” festivities.

Saturday's match will be televised across Central Indiana on WISH-TV 8 (pre-game show starts at 7:00 p.m., match followed by the 30-minute Honda Post-game Show) and can be seen across the United States via streaming video on ESPN3.com (United States) – and across the world via additional ESPN online platforms.

HISTORY vs. EDMONTON: Indy Eleven and FC Edmonton split their three meetings during Indy's 2014 Inaugural Season right down the middle at 1W-1D-1L:

IND 1:2 FCE – May 10: In a game that saw all three goals produced scored within a five minute period of the first half, Edmonton squeaked out of Carroll Stadium with a 2-1 win. FC Edmonton got the scoring started in the 24th minute on a ball that fell to Daryl Fordyce, which he slotted past Kristian Nicht for the goal. Just two minutes later, Kareem Jones converted in front of goal off a corner kick that Indy Eleven failed to clear out of the box to give the Eddies a quick 2-0 lead. In the 29th minute, Indy got one back Mike Ambersley's flicked-on header was redirected by Eddies defender Mallan Roberts, the ball stranding 'keeper Jon Smits for a tally that would surprisingly end the scoring on the night.

INDY ELEVEN VS. FC EDMONTON- SATURDAY, JUNE 13, 2015

FCE 0:1 IND – July 27: Despite getting badly out-shot, Indy Eleven's first trip north of the border saw it arise victorious over the home side by a score of 1-0, courtesy of Kleberson's conversion of a loose ball 12 yards out during second half stoppage time. Goalkeeper Kristian Nicht stepped up huge to post the first shutout in Indy Eleven history and help the squad to its second-straight road win to start Fall Season play.

IND 1:1 FCE – Sept. 13: The two teams would close out their season series with a tie at Carroll Stadium. Victor Pineda put the "Boys in Blue" on the scoresheet first in the 16th minute, when a ball caromed off Edmonton 'keeper John Smits and fell to the feet of the young midfielder, who struck a side-winding tally for his first professional goal. The lead would not last long, however, as Edmonton equalized in the 25th minute when Neil Hlavaty buried a 25-yard free kick past Indy's Kristian Nicht. Much like their first meeting at "The Mike" in May the goals would dry up after the half hour mark, resulting in the 1-1 deadlock.

REGAN REGIME STARTS WITH A WIN: In an effort to shake Indy Eleven from a slow start to the 2015 season, Indy Eleven President/GM Peter Wilt made changes to his technical staff on June 2, relieving Head Coach and Director of Soccer Operations Juergen Sommer of his duties and naming former assistant coach Tim Regan the interim man in charge of both roles. In addition, Wilt removed assistant coach Paul Telfer and announced midfielder Kleberson would serve as assistant under Regan while rehabbing from an Achilles injury.

The "Regan Regime" got off to a winning note last Saturday, as Indy fought to the death to pull out a dramatic 2-1 victory in Fort Lauderdale. Regan brings impressive credentials on the field and the sidelines into his new dual role, the Orland Hills, Ill.-native enjoying a decorated career at Bradley University before being selected in the 2nd round of the 2003 MLS SuperDraft by the MetroStars, which at the time was under the direction of future United States and Egyptian National Team coach Bob Bradley – the first coach hired by Wilt during his tenure with MLS' Chicago Fire. Regan would appear in 81 regular season contests across six seasons in North America's top flight with MetroStars (2003-05), Chivas USA (2006), New York Red Bulls (2007) and Toronto FC (2008).

Regan's primary role with Toronto FC in 2008 was as the team's Chief Scout, a role he kept until 2011. Concurrent to that position, Regan also worked with U.S. Soccer as an assistant coach for the U.S. Under-17, U-18 & U-20 National Teams, eventually parlaying that into a Technical Advisor role with the Federation in 2011. Prior to joining Indy Eleven as the team's first assistant coach on Nov. 11, 2013, Regan's most recent role was with St. Louis Scott Gallagher, where he served as the famed youth club's Development Academy Director, with duties including coaching the U.S. Soccer Development Academy program's U-17/18 squad.

LAST TIME OUT – LATE GAME HEROICS EARN

INDY FULL THREE POINTS AT STRIKERS: The "Tim Regan era" for Indy Eleven had a familiar tone – a result decided in the final minutes – but this time the drama resulted in the full three points as Victor Pineda's 93rd minute strike gave Indy a 2-1 win at the Fort Lauderdale Strikers last Saturday at Lockhart Stadium.

After controlling possession for much of the first 20 minutes, it was the Strikers going up against the run of play in the 23rd minute. Stefano Pinho flicked on Dani Sanchez's cross from the right flank with a header that barely beat an outstretched Kristian Nicht at his right post to give Fort Lauderdale a 1-0 advantage.

Indy Eleven would be rewarded for its efforts at the end of the first half, as Pineda finished his first goal of the evening in the 44th minute, a 20-yard curler inside the right post that ended a well-constructed build up through right back Marco Franco and midfielders Dragan Stojkov and Dylan Mares, the latter picking up the assist on the play.

A back-and-forth second half appeared to be a stalemate until the final seconds, when substitute forward Duke Lacroix's lengthy run down the left flank ended with a cross that initially resulted in a scuffed shot by Don Smart. However, an unsuccessful clearance attempt landed in the path of Pineda, who first-timed a shot into the upper right corner for a dramatic game-winner, snapping the team's five-game NASL winless streak.

INDY ELEVEN VS. FC EDMONTON- SATURDAY, JUNE 13, 2015

BETTER LATE THAN NEVER: When you're watching an Indy Eleven game, here's a piece of advice – DON'T LEAVE EARLY! All but one of Indy Eleven's 10 points this season – the solo garnered from a 1-1 draw with New York on April 11th – have been earned by goals coming in the 85th minute or later. Such is the case for Indy's last two games, as Kyle Hyland's 98th minute goal brought the Tampa Bay game on May 30 to a 2-2 draw, while Victor Pineda's 93rd minute goal last Saturday lifted Indy the a 2-1 win at Fort Lauderdale. Here's the rundown of the late game tallies that have earned – and cost – the "Boys in Blue" points during an entertaining Spring Season:

Game	Goal Scorer	Min	Result
4/04 @ ATL	Don Smart (IND)	93+'	1-1 D
4/18 @ SAS	Sergio Pena (IND)	89'	2-1 W
4/25 v CAR	Blake Wagner (CAR)	85'	1-1 D
5/23 @ OTT	Nikki Paterson (OTT)	88'	0-1 L
5/30 v TBR	Kyle Hyland (IND)	98+'	2-2 D
6/06 @ FTL	Victor Pineda (IND)	93+'	2-1 W

ELEVEN ENDS GOAL DROUGHT: Leading into its May 30th match with Tampa Bay, Indy Eleven had gone five straight games without scoring multiple goals. In fact, that winless five-game run (0W-1D-4L) across NASL and U.S. Open Cup play saw the "Boys in Blue" score just once across a 474-minute stretch. But what a difference a couple of weeks makes, as Indy has put together its 2nd and 3rd multi-goal games in back-to-back weeks ... following is the rundown of scoring efforts that book-ended the team's recent goal drought:

April 18 @ SAS (2-1 W): Norales 64', Peña 89'
 April 25 vs. CAR (1-1 D): own goal 6' (Daniel Scott)
 May 9 @ JAX (0-1 L): shutout
 May 16 vs. MNU (1-3 L): Peña 49'
 May 23 @ OTT (0-1 L): shutout
 May 27 vs. LOU (0-2 L): shutout (120 minutes)
 May 30 vs. TBR (2-2 D): Mares 21', Hyland 98+'
 June 6 @ FTL (2-1 W): Pineda 44', 93+'

INFIRMARY UPDATE: D/M Daniel Keller progressed enough from the concussion he suffered on May 30 vs. Tampa Bay to return to training midweek. In addition, DF Judson McKinney continued to add to his training regimen this week – both players are listed as questionable heading into this weekend's affair against Edmonton. On the other side of the coin, midfielder Sergio Pena went under the knife last Friday to relieve the Compartment Syndrome afflicting both of his legs. The successful procedure has the Honduran set to begin rehabbing exercises next week, but there is no timetable for his return to the training field as of yet.

MORELIA MATCH ON DECK: Indy Eleven will break up its NASL midseason break with the first international friendly in club history on Sunday, June 28, when it will welcome Mexican first division (Liga MX) side Monarcas Morelia to IUPUI's Carroll Stadium for a 1:30 pm kickoff.

PINEDA GIVES ELEVEN REPEAT NASL PLAYERS OF THE WEEK: In recognition for his two-goal performance at Fort Lauderdale last Saturday, Victor Pineda received the NASL's Player of the Week honor for Week 10 of the Spring Season this past Monday. After Indy Eleven went 32 rounds of play to start its tenure in the league without a Player of the Week recipient, the 22-year-old midfielder became the second "Boy in Blue" to earn the award in as many weeks, following on the heels of DF Kyle Hyland's Week 9 nod.

PINEDA & NORALES NAMED TO TEAM OF THE WEEK: As logic would dictate, Pineda was also named to the NASL's Week 10 Team of the Week, his first nod of the season and third of his tenure with Indy dating back to last fall. Pineda is the seventh different member of the squad to be named to an NASL Team of the Week, joining DF Jaime Frias (Week 1), FW Brian Brown (Week 2), MF Sergio Pena (Week 3), GK Kristian Nicht (Week 4) and now three-time recipient DF Erick Norales (Weeks 3, 4 & 10). This week's nod for Norales was the ninth dating back to last season and makes him one of seven players league-wide with three placements in 2015 – only Carolina's MF Tiyi Shipalane has more with four.

ROAD WARRIORS ARE BACK: After back-to-back losses on the road in May at San Antonio and Jacksonville, Indy Eleven returned to its "Road Warrior" form last Saturday with its win in Fort Lauderdale. Prior to its May 9 setback at Jacksonville, Indy had been riding a nearly record-length wave of good fortune on the road, that setback derailing the team's five-game away undefeated streak – just one off the NASL's modern era record.

Last weekend's win brought Indy Eleven's all-time away mark to 6W-5D-7L (24 GF / 29 GA). Indy Eleven became adept at gaining results on the road following its slow start last year, as Indiana's Team is now over .500 away from Carroll Stadium in the 14 road games played since the start of the 2014 Fall Season (6W-3D-5L).

HOME COOKIN' NEEDS BETTER RECIPE: In contrast to its ability to trade blows on the road, Indy Eleven's struggles at home have are well documented. The squad's two victories to close out its 2014 Carroll Stadium slate against the NASL's top two teams across the regular season – Minnesota United FC (2-0 W on Oct. 11) and the eventual champion San Antonio Scorpions (1-0 W on Oct. 18) – left everyone with fuzzy memories heading into year two, but the alarming trend has crept back into "The Mike," the squad going winless at home (0W-3D-2L) in all competitions to start 2015. That said, Indy Eleven is nearly .500 (2W-6D-3L) at Carroll Stadium with a -1 goal differential (12 GF/13 GA) over its last 11 regular season home games (2W-8D-8L all-time at home) across all competitions.

INDY ELEVEN VS. FC EDMONTON- SATURDAY, JUNE 13, 2015

JOCKEYING FOR POSITION: Just how close are the NASL's Spring Season standings? With a win Saturday and losses by Jacksonville and San Antonio, Indy can finish the Spring in 5th place (should Ottawa defeat San Antonio and make up a one-goal differential on Indy, then Ottawa would jump Indy in the standings). But a loss – or even a draw – against the “Eddies” this weekend could put Indy back down in the league’s basement, just one week after it escaped last place and jumped up to its current 7th place position.

Even with the Spring title out of reach, every point will count as “The Championship” postseason format includes not only the Spring and Fall Season winners, but the next two overall point-earners as well (winners of Spring and Fall Season automatically get top two seeds in the format).

MARES LENDING HELPING FOOT: Midfielder Dylan Mares remains the only Indy Eleven player with multiple assists through nine games. The 25-year-old South Bend native and Zionsville H.S. product now has three assists on the campaign after helping on Victor Pineda's 44' equalizer last Saturday at Fort Lauderdale, which places him tied for 4th in the league alongside New York's Walter Restrepo. Tampa Bay's Georgi Hristov currently paces the league with five assists, while Tiyi Shipalane (CAR) and Lance Laing (FCE) are right behind on four helpers.

SHARING THE SCORING LOAD: With his brace last weekend in Fort Lauderdale – just the third multi-goal effort in club history in NASL play (Mike Ambersley on 6/07/14 @ ATL & Kleberson on 8/02/14 @ ATL) – Victor Pineda tied Sergio Peña for the team's scoring lead with two goals apiece. Six players have now tallied 10 times for the “Boys in Blue” across nine league games, matching the number of unique scorers from the same amount of games at the start of last season (although Indy scored 13 goals in that stretch ... and got another from an own goal).

ROOKIES MAKING THEIR MARKS: It didn't take long for rookie D/M Daniel Keller to get some action in checkers, as the University of Louisville product, who signed on May 11, made his NASL – and professional – debut with a late cameo May 23 at Ottawa, entering in the 90th minute in place of Brad Ring. Keller was pressed into action on four days later against Louisville City FC and played 95 minutes in the defensive midfield role.

Keller wasn't the only newcomer seeing action against Louisville, as University of Pennsylvania product Duke Lacroix also made his pro debut in the Open Cup affair – ironically entering for Keller in the 95th minute – just six days after signing on May 21. Lacroix might have only officially logged two minutes in his official NASL debut last Saturday at Fort Lauderdale, but the speedster made his presence felt, firing a dangerous shot that forced a quality save in the first minute of stoppage time before going on a 60-yard run down the left flank to start the eventual game-winning play for the “Boys in Blue.”

NICHT'S BUSY NIGHT: After watching multiple goals go past him in his previous two starts against Tampa Bay and Louisville City FC – his first such allowances of the season – Kristian Nicht rebounded last Saturday, making a season-high six saves en route to a 2-1 victory. The 33-year-old German veteran, who returned from his fortnight cameo with MLS' Montreal Impact in late April/early May with a start on May 23 at Ottawa, continues to be steady, his 21 saves on the year placing 4th in the NASL, while his 1.14 goals against average places him 8th amongst goalkeepers who have logged at least 250 minutes.

FRANCO LEADS “IRONMAN” RACE: Defenders Marco Franco and Erick Norales were the only two Indy Eleven players to log all 630 minutes across the team's first seven NASL games, but with Norales getting a rest on May 30 vs. Tampa Bay, it was Franco taking the top spot in minutes played this season all by himself. The streak for Franco – who logged another 90 minutes last Saturday at Fort Lauderdale – doesn't stop there, as the ex-Chicago Fire man has played every minute of Indy Eleven's last 16 games (including U.S. Open Cup play) dating back to his season-ending six-game starting run that began last September. While Franco is the only player to start all nine league games this season, an additional three players (Mares, Rugg & Brown) have seen some time in every game to this point ...

NO SMART PLAY (FOR ONCE): ... which brings us to MF Don Smart, who, for the first time in Indy Eleven's 38-game history to that point, did not see the field when Indy Eleven drew Tampa Bay on May 30. The Jamaican right winger – who kicked off another games played streak by coming off the bench last Saturday in Fort Lauderdale – had been a late-game staple off the bench when not starting for Indy Eleven, as he was a substitute in 25 of his 37 appearances leading up to the row with the Rowdies.

KNOW THY “ED-EMY”: Through the first nine games of the Spring Season, FC Edmonton has both scored and given up the most goals in the NASL. The Eddies lead the charge in goals scored with 16, but they have allowed 19 goals, four more than any other club. Indy's -2 goal differential from 10 GF/12 GA is actually tied for 5th best in the league ...

FCE has dropped all three games “south of the border” in 2015, giving up nine goals and racking up a -5 goal differential in defeats at Jacksonville (1-3 L), New York (2-4 L) and just last weekend in Tampa Bay (1-2 L).

Two Eddies players have been called up to represent their respective national teams in matches that will leave them off Saturday's roster. Defender Mallan Roberts was called up to Canada's national team to face off with Dominica this week as well as being named to Canada's preliminary 35 man roster for July's Gold Cup. Midfielder Lance Laing – who along with midfielder Ritchie Jones is tied with three others for second in the NASL Golden Boot race with four goals – was called into the Jamaican National Team in advance of the Reggae Boyz' clash with Uruguay on Saturday in the Copa America.

KLEBERSON GOES UNDER THE KNIFE – AND TO THE SIDELINE: Midfielder Kleberson underwent successful surgery on May 19 to repair a torn right Achilles tendon, an injury he suffered in training on May 12. The 2002 World Cup champion was close to wrapping up his first day of training on his way back from a hamstring ailment before suffering the non-contact injury. No timetable has been set for his return to action, however, the Brazilian legend will keep plenty busy while he rehabs after assuming assistant coaching duties under new interim head coach Tim Regan on June 2.

PENA WINS PLAY OF THE WEEK ... AND THE INTERNET: From the “No Kidding Department” came news on April 22 that midfielder Sergio Pena's stunning game-winner from distance at San Antonio on May 18 – his first goal in 18 appearances for Indy – was the runaway winner for the NASL Play of the Week for Week 3, his tally garnering 64% of the fan vote. The video of the goal on Indy Eleven's YouTube page has more than 81,000 views – thanks in part to outlets like ESPN FC, FOX Soccer and Deadspin featuring the goal on the interwebs.

INTERNATIONALLY KNOWN: Indiana's Team in “The World's Game” saw a slight re-stock in regards to international talent during the offseason, with midfield newcomers Osman Melgares (Honduras) and Dragan Stojkov (Macedonia) taking the international roster slots previously held by Jermaine Johnson and Corby Moore.

One thing that hasn't changed is Indy Eleven's international feel, as nearly half – 11 of 23 – of the team's players were either born outside the United States or carry dual-citizenship:

- * MID Brian Brown - Jamaica
- DEF Jaime Frias – USA/Mexico
- * MID Kleberson – Brazil
- * MID Osman Melgares – Honduras
- DEF Judson McKinney – Ivory Coast
- * GK Kristian Nicht – Germany
- * DEF Erick Norales – Honduras
- * MID Sergio Peña – Honduras
- MID Don Smart – Jamaica/USA
- * MID Dragan Stojkov – Macedonia
- FWD Wojciech Wojcik – Poland
- * Designated as international players on roster

EVERYTHING OLD IS NEW AGAIN: The biggest question during Indy Eleven's offseason was if the squad would be able to keep the pieces of the roster it wanted into season two, especially after the promising end to the club's inaugural campaign. The team's technical staff went to work immediately in November and went deep into the preseason to secure its returning core, their efforts ending with 14 of the 23 players on the current roster having spent at least five games with Indy last season. The search for more new blood has yielded the addition of rookies Daniel Keller and Duke Lacroix in recent weeks – and you can bet your bottom dollar the search for talent will continue into the summer months.

INDY ELEVEN VS. FC EDMONTON- SATURDAY, JUNE 13, 2015

RECAP VS TBR – MAY 30: In one of the wildest games in Indy Eleven's brief history, defender Kyle Hyland struck a 25-yard goal at the death to salvage a point from a 2-2 draw at Carroll Stadium.

The match got off to a great start for the home side, which got a goal from Dylan Mares in the 21st minute to reward its attacking energy, but any momentum from the strike would be halted immediately thereafter, as approaching storms would see the match delayed for just over two hours.

It was Tampa that would seize control after the break, as Carmel native Rich Balchan would even things up in the 40th minute to send the match into halftime at 1-1. The visitors would go up in the 68th minute on Maicon Santos' header off a corner kick, which seemingly gave the Rowdies control heading down the stretch.

But things would start to unravel for the visitors, as Santos saw a red card just minutes after his goal for getting involved in an altercation, and Stefan Antonijevic would see red as well for a 2nd yellow card in the 89th minute. Indy would push hard with the 2-man advantage, which finally paid off in the 98th minute when Hyland carried for 25 yards before unleashing a blast that beat Matt Pickens and brushed the underside of the crossbar.

RECAP @ OTT – MAY 23: Indy Eleven was primed to take a point back home from Ottawa last Saturday afternoon, but Fury FC midfielder Nicki Paterson had other ideas, as he slammed home a loose ball in the 88th minute to give the home side a 1-0 victory at TD Place in the Canadian capital.

There wasn't much to write about when it came to attacking soccer last weekend, as the one-goal affair featured just 11 combined shots by the two squads. Indy Eleven didn't go quietly, though, as midfielder Victor Pineda nearly scored with a poke from 12 yards out that missed the left post by mere inches.

While Indy Eleven seemed to have the better of the chances throughout, Ottawa picked up steam as the second half went on, eventually taking the possession battle by the scuff of the neck and putting the Eleven on their heels in the final 10 minutes.

The pressure nearly paid off in the 82nd minute when substitute Paulo Junior saw his blast from the edge of the area skip just wide. But it was Paterson providing the heroics late, as Brad Ring's attempted clearance deep in the area hit off an Ottawa player and fell right to the veteran, who made no mistake with a finish into the right side netting.

RECAP VS LOUISVILLE CITY FC (USOC) – MAY

27: Indy Eleven saw its Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup dreams dashed in added extra time for the second straight year, this time at home as USL side Louisville City FC scored twice in the final five minutes to collect a 2-0 win in their third round affair on Wednesday evening at “The Mike.”

After waiting out a weather delay that pushed back kickoff an hour, the attack from both teams seemed to start late as well, as the fouls piled up during an increasingly physical first half.

Chances would remain few and far between until late in the match, and Indy Eleven felt it was robbed of a chance to win it from the spot late when Tarek Morad's takedown of Brian Brown in the 89th minute went uncalled. From there it was the home side that seemed to pick things up, but the “Boys in Blue” saw multiple quality chances go wanting as the match progressed into the second stanza of added extra time.

It was Louisville that would finally go in front in the 115th minute, when Nate Polak cutback to find space at the top of the area and sent a one-hopper skipping past a diving Kristian Nicht and inside the right post. The visitors would add an insurance tally four minutes later, when Sydney Rivera finished off a flurry of chances with a rebound tally off a shot of the post.

RECAP VS MNU – MAY 16: Minnesota United FC used second half goals from Justin Davis and Juliano Vicentini to break a deadlock with Indy Eleven in the standings and on the scoreboard in a 3-1 win last Saturday at a sold-out Carroll Stadium.

The Loons would break through first in the 22nd minute via a dead ball opportunity, as midfielder Kalif Alhassan sent a screaming 28-yard free kick past Indy 'keeper Keith Cardona and into the upper right 90 to put the visitors up.

Minnesota carried that lead into the halftime break, but it would not last for long as Indy Eleven capitalized on its own set piece in the 49th minute. Midfielder Dylan Mares sent a well-struck corner kick to the top of the six, from where midfielder Sergio Peña crushed it into the back of the net with a header to even the score 1-1.

From there, possession would go back-and-forth until Minnesota made the most out of an opportunity in the 63rd minute. Pablo Campos' initial effort was saved by a diving Cardona into the left side of the box, but Davis beat his mark to the rebound and finished into an open net to give Minnesota the lead once again at 2-1.

More and more, Indy would build up strength into the attacking third, but United FC would hold strong and eventually double its advantage. The dagger came in the 83rd minute when substitute forward Christian Ramirez played a through ball past Indy defenders to Vicentini, who slotted a low shot into the bottom right corner of goal to bring the score to its final 3-1 finish.

INDY ELEVEN VS. FC EDMONTON- SATURDAY, JUNE 13, 2015

RECAP AT JAX – MAY 9: Indy Eleven tasted defeat for the first time in nine games – and eight months dating back to last September – on May 9 in Jacksonville, as Bochy Hoyos' header in the 49th minute would mark the lone goal in Armada FC's 1-0 win at Community First Park.

The first half saw debutant goalkeeper Keith Cardona under fire for most of the opening half hour, but he and the Indy defense bent but didn't break under the barrage of dead ball opportunities created by the home side. The attack showed signs of life in the final 10 minutes of the stanza, but chances by Wojciech Wojcik and Victor Pineda went for naught and the sides entered the break still at 0-0.

The start of the second half saw Jacksonville nearly score off the whistle on a chance by defender Matt Bahner, who would end up playing provider on the goal four minutes later, as his whipped in cross from the right found the head of Hoyos inside the six. The 0-1 deficit woke up the Indy attack, as the "Boys in Blue" ended the match with an edge in shots (17-16) when it was all said and done, but couldn't take advantage of them as they piled up towards the final whistle.

RECAP VS CAR – APRIL 25: Indy Eleven was five minutes away from sharing the top spot, but a late goal by Carolina RailHawks defender Blake Wagner helped the visitors claim a point from a 1-1 draw at a rainy IUPUI Carroll Stadium on April 25.

The sold out home crowd of 10,524 was encouraged by a 6th minute own goal off RailHawks defender Daniel Scott, but were deflated after Wagner's late heroics cost their Eleven two valuable points in the standings.

The home side was buzzing early, and Indy Eleven's high energy – and high pressure – paid off just six minutes in with an own goal off the foot of Carolina's Daniel Scott. With a perfectly timed through ball over the top, Indy forward Wojciech Wojcik found a streaking Charlie Rugg down the right side. The LA Galaxy loanee's cross into the six would be deflected in by Scott, who was sliding towards the Carolina goal as he tried to clear the ball away.

Indy Eleven's repeated failed chances to double the lead – most notably a trio of shots in quick succession in the 78th minute that were either saved by Carolina netminder Hunter Gilstrap or blocked by defenders – came back to haunt them in the 85th minute, when Tiyi Shipalane's cross from the right went to the opposite side of the area where it found a waiting Blake Wagner. The RailHawks defender gathered calmly and smashed a shot from 12 yards past Kristian Nicht and inside the right post to even the match at 1-1, which is how it would end.

INDY ELEVEN VS. FC EDMONTON- SATURDAY, JUNE 13, 2015

RECAP VS SAS – APRIL 18: Just when Indy Eleven looked destined to claim a third straight 1-1 draw to begin the season last Saturday at San Antonio, late substitute midfielder Sergio Pena came to the rescue, his 45-yard bomb in the 89th minute making the difference in a stunning 2-1 victory at Toyota Field over the defending NASL champion.

Indy's backline bent on a couple of occasions in the first half but did not break, as the squads entered the halftime break still locked at 0-0. San Antonio took advantage of an Indy defensive error in the 52nd minute, when Cesar Elizondo stole a poor pass 40 yards from goal, slalomed through three Indy defenders and played Omar Cummings into the area, where the Jamaican slotted low and to the left of Kristian Nicht to give the home side a 1-0 lead. That advantage would be short-lived however, as Erick Norales nodded home Dylan Mares' free kick at the far left post in the 64th minute, a goal that evened things up at 1-1 and brought considerable life back into the "Boys in Blue".

That would set up Pena's late heroics, as the Honduran midfielder, who entered in the 81st minute, accepted fellow substitute Wojciech Wojcik's laid-off header with his chest 10 yards inside midfield. One touch and one bounce later, Pena let rip one of his trademark long-distance shots, the 45-yard effort finding the space between the bottom of the crossbar and the hands of back-peddling goalkeeper Jon Kempin, allowing Indy to steal the full three points and leap into 2nd place in the NASL Spring Season standings.

RECAP VS NYC – APRIL 11: Indy Eleven continued a trio of streaks with its 1-1 draw against the New York Cosmos last Saturday night in its 2015 home opener at Carroll Stadium, extending its undefeated streaks in regular season play (7 games) and the Cosmos (4 games) while also running its regular season home sellout streak to 15 games (10,524).

Indy Eleven forward Brian Brown would give the Hoosier State side its first-ever lead against the Cosmos in the 12th minute, when he caught New York 'keeper Jimmy Maurer off his line and chipped home from 30 yards out. New York would gradually assert its will on the match, paying off in the 65th minute when superstar striker Raul gained some space at the top of the six and headed home Walter Restrepo's cross.

INDY ELEVEN VS. FC EDMONTON- SATURDAY, JUNE 13, 2015

RECAP @ ATL – APRIL 4: Indy Eleven fans got used to holding their breath last season ... and that carried over into its season opener April 4th in Atlanta, which Don Smart tied up in second half stoppage time to earn a 1-1 draw at Silverbacks Park.

Good chances were hard to come by in the first 45 minutes for both sides, but the game opened up shortly after the halftime whistle when Shaka Bangura's late run into the area after a failed Indy clearance allowed him to slot home and put Atlanta up 1-0.

The Silverbacks were content to absorb pressure and counter it out to the end, a plan that seemed destined to work until Greg Janicki picked out Jaime Frias' run down the left flank in the 92nd minute. After chesting down with his first touch his second took him into the penalty area, where he was hacked down to earn the late PK. Smart stutter-stepped and sent 'keeper C.J. Cochran diving the wrong way before coolly slotting inside the right post to even it up at the death.
