HISTORY vs. MINNESOTA: Indy Eleven heads into the greater Twin Cities area on Wednesday night with a 1W-0D-3L mark against the “Loons,” including losses in both trips to the National Sports Center Stadium during its inaugural season in 2014.

The two sides squared off for the first time in 2015 back on May 16 at Carroll Stadium, where Minnesota went up early and overcame a 49th minute equalizer from Sergio Pena to notch a 3-1 win (scroll below for the full recap/box score).

LAST TIME OUT – FORT LAUDERDALE STRIKES

HARD & FAST IN HEAVY DEFEAT: Indy Eleven fell victim to the worst loss in its brief club history last Saturday night, when Fort Lauderdale scored early and kept its foot on the gas in a 7-1 victory over the visiting Eleven at Lockhart Stadium.

An acrobatic rebound blast by Stefano Pinho just 68 seconds in set the tone, while PC's PK conversion in the 7th minute gave the Strikers a lightning fast 2-0 cushion. However, Dane Richards' tally in the 16th minute gave the "Boys in Blue" a sliver of hope that a quick comeback could be in the cards, only to see Marlon Freitas' blast from distance four minutes later bring things to 3-1.

Things would go from bad to worse for Indy just five minutes after halftime when defender Marco Franco received a red card. The flood gates would open after the hour mark as Freitas bagged his second from outside the area in the 67th minute, followed by Stefano finishing of his hat trick and the closer five minutes from time by PC.

DOG DAYS STRETCH CONTINUES SATURDAY

IN SUNSHINE STATE: Indy Eleven had a strenuous – and stressful – three-week stretch to forget from July 18 through Aug. 8, when a pair of losses to Ottawa Fury FC bookmarked a five-game winless stretch. During that rough 21-day stretch, "Indiana's Team" went 0W-1D-4L (the lone draw coming on July 25 vs. New York, 1-1).

A much-needed 11-day break followed, and Indy Eleven has responded with a 1-1-1 run to kick off its busiest stretch of the entire campaign, a five-game, 18-day gauntlet that continues Wednesday night at Minnesota. The midweek affair will mark the last game of a three-game road trip, also the longest of the year for the "Boys in Blue."

Indy Eleven's depth and character will continue to be tested through the end of the run this week, as it will close out the brutal five-game stretch this Saturday at home against Jacksonville Armada FC.

INDY DEFENDERS SEEING RED:

Indy Eleven saw a defender ejected for the fourth time in eight matches last Saturday, as right back Marco Franco was shown a straight red for a challenge from behind on Fort Lauderdale attacker PC in the 50th minute – following up on center back Erick Norales' similar straight red in the exact same minute the match prior at Atlanta.

After going 12 games to start the season without seeing a player sent off, the troubling trend for Indy Eleven began with Cory Miller's ejection late at Ottawa on July 19 (two cautions) and continued the next game on July 25 with Norales' on-field incident with New York's Sebastian Guenzatti earning the Honduran international an extra one-game suspension from the league office.

THE FIRST CUT IS THE DEEPEST:

Indy Eleven had reversed its trend of conceding first during recent outings against Tampa Bay and Atlanta, but the troubling habit picked back up all too early last Saturday in Fort Lauderdale after Stefano Pinho hit the back of the net just 68 seconds into the match. Indy Eleven snapped a six-game streak in which it had conceded first when Dane Richards broke through in the 60th minute on Aug. 19 against Tampa Bay, and he helped Indy get on top early again in the 6th minute on Aug. 22 at Atlanta.

Throughout the 2015 combined season, Indy has now allowed the first goal 13 times in 20 games – including its lone meeting thus far against Minnesota (a 1-3 loss back on May 16) – during which it has compiled a 3W-2D-8L record.

INFIRMARY UPDATE: Indy Eleven’s injury woes in the center of its midfield are finally starting to go away, as the “Boys in Blue” again have the services of Marvin Ceballos and Brad Ring, both of whom went the full 90 minutes last Saturday at Fort Lauderdale.

Dylan Mares continues to make good progress from his meniscus surgery on July 31 and could return to full training within the next week, while Sergio Pena is also resuming exercises with the full team for the first time since undergoing compartment syndrome surgery on both of his legs in late May.

Indy Eleven did add a pair of player to its injury list with minor injuries this week in forward Charlie Rugg (R knee tendonitis) and defender Greg Janicki (L hip impingement).

FOR RICHARDS, SCORING IS THRICE AS NICE:

After a frustrating first stretch of games with Indy Eleven, veteran midfielder/forward Dane Richards has found his scoring touch across the last couple of weeks. The Jamaican veteran became just the second player in club history to score in three consecutive games when he finished from 20 yards out in the 16th minute of last Saturday’s 1-7 loss at Fort Lauderdale, joining a similar run from Kleberston during the team’s inaugural season last July/August. The 31-year-old Richards also scored Indy’s lone tally – a 6th minute penalty kick – during its 1-1 draw at Atlanta on Aug. 22, three days after he notched his first goal in checkers against Tampa Bay, the game-winner in a 2-0 victory at Carroll Stadium.

Richards has 24 goals and 26 assists under his belt in MLS play from his stints with NYRB (2007-12, 2015) and Vancouver (2012), and he places 2nd on the Red Bulls’ career lists in minutes (11,598), games played (159) and starts (133). Richards hopped overseas from 2013-14, initially signing with English Championship side Burnley for a short stint before joining Norwegian club FK Bodø/Glimt for most of those seasons. Richards also brings vast international experience to the Circle City, scoring 10 goals in 45 senior appearances for the Jamaican Men’s National Team. Richards holds a U.S. Green Card and therefore does not count against the team’s seven international player slots on the roster.

“TOUCHDOWN” RESETS DEFENSIVE GAINS:

Indy Eleven entered last Saturday’s affair at Fort Lauderdale squarely in the middle of the NASL pack tied for the 5th best defense with 27 goals allowed ... but then the landslide at Lockhart Stadium happened, and the “Boys in Blue” now find themselves with a league-high 34 goals conceded and a league-worst -10 goal differential.

Despite the rough outing, goalkeeper Kristian Nicht still tied his season high with five saves on the evening, and now sits three across the league with 49 stops on the season and at the .500 mark on the year with a 5W-7D-5L record for the combined campaign.

OHHHHHH, WE’RE HALFWAY THERE ...: Promise no more Bon Jovi quotes moving forward, but it’s appropriate here as Indy Eleven’s contest at Fort Lauderdale marked the halfway point of its Fall Season campaign – and the “2/3rds pole” for the combined 2015 season. Indy Eleven couldn’t keep pace with its Spring Season point haul of 13, recording just 9 points across its first 10 games of Fall Season action:

Spring Season (10 games): 3W-4D-3L, 13 points (5th)
 Fall Season (10 games): 2W-3D-5L, 9 points (9th)

Despite the slow start in the Fall, Indy Eleven could actually still find itself in the top four of the Combined Season standings with a 6-point week against Minnesota and Jacksonville ... and a little help on the weekend (a Carolina win or draw at home vs. Atlanta on Saturday night and a Tampa Bay loss at New York on Sunday afternoon). Here’s the Combined Season table as we enter Week 10 of NASL play ...

PENALTY PHASE CATCHES UP WITH INDY:

Dane Richards’ 6th minute conversion from the penalty spot on Aug. 22nd marked Indy Eleven’s 3rd goal from the spot in 2015 in four tries, all without seeing their opposition earn even one ... that is, until last Saturday at Fort Lauderdale, when everything seemed to go wrong for the “Boys in Blue.” After earning the spot kick by bring spun around in the area by Brad Ring, PC stepped up to the spot in the 7th minute to take – and convert – the first spot kick against Indy in 2015, breaking a 19-game run without conceding a PK. Indy Eleven was also on the good side of the whistles inside the area in 2014, when it attempted eight PKs (7 goals), twice as many as its opposition (converted 3 of 4 attempts).

SHARING THE SCORING LOAD: Dane Richards became the 11th different player to score in checkers with his Aug. 19 goal against Tampa Bay, the not-quite-dozen now combining to register 23 goals thus far (the 24th came via own goal by Carolina's Zach Scott). After scoring in his third straight game last Saturday in Fort Lauderdale, Richards is now tied with Dylan Mares and Erick Norales for the team's scoring lead, the duo one goal ahead of six players sitting on a pair – Wojciech Wojcik, Victor Pineda, Brian Brown, Sergio Pena, Don Smart and Duke Lacroix. Defenders Kyle Hyland and Judson McKinney round out the group of goal-scorers on Indy with one each.

STEINBERGER STEPS RIGHT IN: Before Marvin Ceballos' arrival, former Butler University midfielder Zach Steinberger was the newest "Boy in Blue" after coming to Indy Eleven on loan from Major League Soccer's Houston Dynamo on July 29. Steinberger wasted no time getting himself acclimated, starting in five of his six available matches, including full 90-minute performances in each of the squad's last three games.

The native of Long Beach, Calif., returns to the Circle City after being selected in the first round (8th overall) of the 2015 MLS SuperDraft out of Butler University by the Dynamo back on January 15. The 23-year-old midfielder logged 29 minutes during three substitute appearances for Houston in regular season play and made three more appearances (2 starts) in Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup play across June and July, totaling 184 minutes.

RICHARDS & KELLER MARK INDY'S RETURN TO TEAM OF THE WEEK: Midfielder Daniel Keller and forward Dane Richards broke a four-week drought for Indy Eleven on the NASL Team of the Week after being named to the league's Fall Week 8 Best XI last Wednesday. Both players earned their first such weekly recognitions from the league, giving Indy its first dual nods since Erick Norales and Wojciech Wojcik following Fall Week 2. Richards and Keller became the 10th and 11th different "Boys in Blue" to make the squad in 2015 ...

- 6 – Erick Norales (Spr 3, 4, 10 & 11; Fall 1 & 2)
- 2 – Dylan Mares (Spr 11 & Fall 4)
- 1 – Brian Brown (Spr 2)
- 1 – Jaime Frias (Spr 1)
- 1 – Kyle Hyland (Spr 9)
- 1 – Kristian Nicht (Spr 4)
- 1 – Sergio Pena (Spr 3)
- 1 – Victor Pineda (Spr 10)
- 1 – Wojciech Wojcik (Fall 2)
- 1 – Dane Richards (Fall 8)
- 1 – Daniel Keller (Fall 8)

MARES CLOSE TO COMBACK: Midfielder Dylan Mares had been red hot in 2015 before missing the last month due to surgery to repair a slight tear in his right meniscus (knee). The successful procedure was performed on July 31 by Dr. Greg Estes of Community Health Sports Medicine. However, Mares is close to returning to consideration, getting in some full workouts with the squad this week.

Before the surgery, Mares was coming off a week where he scored his team-high third goal in a 1-1 draw with New York on July 25, a play that won the NASL's Play of the Week honor and landed him a spot on the league's Team of the Week. The South Bend native and IU product is the team leader in assists with four of Indy's 13 helpers on the season, which places him tied for fifth across the NASL.

ROAD WOES CREEPING IN: After going a respectable 2W-1D-2L on the road during the Spring Season, the grueling NASL road trips have started to take their toll on Indy Eleven, which has gone winless (0W-2D-3L) in five away affairs to start the Fall Season (2W-3D-5L overall). Prior to its May 9 loss at Jacksonville, Indy was actually on the cusp of a record-setting performance on the road, that 0-1 defeat derailing the team's five-game away undefeated streak – which was just one off the NASL's modern era record.

Indy Eleven's all-time away mark now stands at 6W-7D-10L (29 GF / 44 GA) following last weekend's historic defeat at Fort Lauderdale, which set club records for most goals allowed and largest margin of defeat in a regular season contest. Indy Eleven will need to rebound quickly as it will finish out its season-long three-game road trip Wednesday in Minnesota.

HOME COOKIN': After going winless in its first 12 home games at Carroll Stadium in 2014, Indy Eleven has since gone 5W-4D-3L in its last dozen outings at "The Mike" – starting with last year's two wins to close out the home slate. Thanks to its 2-0 win over the Rowdies on Aug. 19, Indy has now split its 10 regular season games at home thus far in 2015 down the middle, its record sitting at 3W-4D-3L with an even goal differential (14 GF / 14 GA).

LACROIX SNAPS SCORELESS STREAK ON CUSP OF RECORD: When Dylan Mares scored in first half stoppage time on July 25 against New York it marked Indy Eleven's 13th goal in six-and-a-half games ... but then the well went dry, as the "Boys in Blue" went 285 minutes without scoring again until Duke Lacroix's 60th minute strike on Aug. 8 against Ottawa. The rookie's goal on the hour mark allowed Indy Eleven to snap its scoreless streak just one minute before tying the longest goalless drought in club history – a 286-minute stretch from 08/02/14 v. ATL through 08/16/14 @ MNU.

BEWARE OF THE DRAGAN: While Dylan Mares paced the team in assists before his recent knee injury, it's been Dragan Stojkov who's picked up the slack, as the Macedonian midfielder has notched the two of the team's last three helpers (Mares on 7/25 v NYC & Lacroix on 8/08 v OTT). Stojkov & Mares have combined for nearly half of Indy Eleven's 13 assists on the season. Midfielder Daniel Keller was the latest player to add his name to the helper's list when he notched his first professional assist on Aug. 19 vs. Tampa Bay on Dane Richards' GWG.

CEBALLOS SHOWS PROMISE: First it was Dane Richards, then Zach Steinberger ... but Indy Eleven wasn't done bolstering its midfield corps there, as the squad announced on August 4 the signing of Guatemalan international Marvin Ceballos for the remainder of the NASL Fall Season. The 23-year-old playmaker made his debut with a full 90-minute performance on Aug. 8 against Ottawa, showing more than a few glimpses of the promising attacking play he was brought in to deliver. A right heel bruise suffered during that match limited him to just a 9-minute cameo the next time out against Tampa Bay on Aug. 19, and he was rested in the match that followed three days later last Saturday in Atlanta, but he returned with a full 90-minute shift last Saturday as a forward in Indy's disappointing loss at Fort Lauderdale.

Ceballos grew up in the youth ranks of powerhouse CSD Comunicaciones in his native country and moved up to its first team in 2011, scoring 8 goals in 69 regular season matches and adding another in CONCACAF Champions League play during the 2010/11 and 2014/15 tournament. Ceballos has registered 5 "caps" for Guatemala's senior national team, including three between last August and October. Ceballos is widely known for his goal in the 2011 FIFA U-20 World Cup against Croatia, his 81' tally in the Group D finale sending los Chapines to a 1-0 win that clinched their passage to the Round of 16.

REGAN REGIME ROLLS ON: Since taking control of the Indy Eleven sideline, interim head coach and director of soccer operations Tim Regan has steered the "Boys in Blue" to a 4W-3D-5L record, this after a sluggish 1W-4D-3L start to the team's 2015 NASL campaign and an early exit in Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup play.

In an effort to shake Indy Eleven from a slow start to the 2015 season, Indy Eleven President/GM Peter Wilt made changes to his technical staff on June 2, relieving Sommer of his Head Coach and Director of Soccer Operations duties and naming former assistant Regan as the interim man in charge of both roles. In addition, Wilt removed assistant coach Paul Telfer and announced midfielder Kleberson would serve as assistant under Regan while rehabbing from an Achilles injury.

Regan brings impressive credentials on the field and the sidelines into his new dual role, the Orland Hills, Ill.-native enjoying a decorated career at Bradley University before being selected in the 2nd round of the 2003 MLS SuperDraft by the MetroStars, which at the time was under the direction of future United States and Egyptian National Team coach Bob Bradley – the first coach hired by Wilt during his tenure with MLS' Chicago Fire. Regan appeared in 81 regular season games in North America's top flight with MetroStars (2003-05), Chivas USA (2006), NY Red Bulls (2007) and Toronto FC (2008).

Regan's primary role with Toronto FC in 2008 was as the team's Chief Scout, a role he kept until 2011. Regan also worked with U.S. Soccer as an assistant coach for the U.S. Under-17, U-18 & U-20 National Teams and a Technical Advisor with the Federation in 2011. Prior to joining Indy Eleven as the team's first assistant coach on Nov. 11, 2013, Regan's most recent role was with St. Louis Scott Gallagher, where he served as the famed youth club's Development Academy Director, with duties including coaching the U.S. Soccer Development Academy program's U-17/18 squad.

INTERNATIONALLY KNOWN: Indiana's Team in "The World's Game" saw a slight re-stock in regards to international talent during the offseason, with midfield newcomers Osman Melgares (Honduras) and Dragan Stojkov (Macedonia) taking the international roster slots previously held by Jermaine Johnson and Corby Moore.

One thing that hasn't changed is Indy Eleven's international feel, as now close to half – 12 of 25 – of the team's players following the recent additions of midfielders Dane Richards and Marvin Ceballos were either born outside the United States or carry dual-citizenship:

- * MID Brian Brown - Jamaica
- * MID Marvin Ceballos – Guatemala
- DEF Jaime Frias – USA/Mexico
- * MID Kleberson – Brazil
- DEF Judson McKinney – Ivory Coast
- * GK Kristian Nicht – Germany

- MID Don Smart – Jamaica/USA
- * MID Dragan Stojkov – Macedonia
- FWD Wojciech Wojcik – Poland

* Designated as international players on roster

MELGARES LOAN ENDS EARLY: Indy Eleven announced on July 15 that the club and midfielder Osman Melgares mutually agreed to end their loan agreement, sending the 28-year-old back to Honduran First Division side Real Sociedad. Melgares, who occupied an international roster spot, started 4 of 6 league appearances with Indy (317 min) and went the distance in the squad's U.S. Open Cup clash vs. Louisville in May.

EVERYTHING OLD IS NEW AGAIN: The biggest question during Indy Eleven's offseason was if the squad would be able to keep the pieces of the roster it wanted into season two, especially after the promising end to the club's inaugural campaign. The team's technical staff went to work immediately in November and went deep into the preseason to secure its returning core, their efforts ending with 14 of the 21 players on the opening day roster having spent at least five games with Indy last season.

But the search for new blood has ramped up since May, yielding rookies Daniel Keller and Duke Lacroix in May and Dane Richards, Zach Steinberger and Marvin Ceballos in July and August.

INDY ELEVEN @ MINNESOTA UNITED FC – WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 2015

RECAP @ ATL – AUG. 22: Indy Eleven would hold onto a slim lead for more than an hour, but the shorthanded "Boys in Blue" would eventually allow an equalizer and settle for a 1-1 draw at Silverbacks Park.

The visitors would catch some good fortune in the 5th minute, when a corner kick sent deep into the Atlanta area deflected off the arm of a Silverbacks defender, resulting in an early point to the spot. Forward Dane Richards would step up and fire his PK off the hands of an outstretch Steward Ceus and into the right side of goal to give the Jamaican his second goal of the week and Indy Eleven the early advantage.

Indy Eleven 'keeper Kristian Nicht was on the spot to make several big saves in the first half to keep the score at 1-0 headed into the break. The headline of the second half script would be written early in the 50th minute, when Eleven captain Erick Norales received a red card for allegedly dragging down Silverbacks striker Jaime Chavez as he broke in towards goal. It was Chavez that would create the equalizer in the 76th minute, when his near-angle chip looped over Nicht; while defender Marco Franco initially cleared the ball off the line, it fell right into fellow back-tracking defender Greg Janicki for an evening own goal.

RECAP v TBR – AUG. 19: Indy Eleven finally brought a month-long, five-game winless streak to an end on Wednesday night, using goals 10 minutes apart in the second half by Dane Richards and Erick Norales to post a 2-0 win over the visiting Tampa Bay Rowdies in front of 8,500 at Carroll Stadium.

Quality chances were few and far between in the first 45 minutes, with a Maicon Santos blast from distance that was punched away by Kristian Nicht in the 16th minute and Zach Steinberger's 33rd minute header that was grabbed by Matt Pickens marking the best chances of the first half.

Richards just missed picking out Duke Lacroix's back post run in the 57th minute, but the Jamaican would atone three minutes later with a low blast that beat Pickens inside the back left post to put the "Boys in Blue" ahead right on the stroke of the 60th minute.

Richards would also play a role in setting up Indy's second, as he was hauled down just four yards outside the Rowdies area after splitting two defenders. It was the captain Norales who would step up and take the free kick opportunity, guiding his 22-yard shot perfectly into the right upper 90 past a leaping Pickens to double the advantage.

RECAP v OTT – AUG. 8: Indiana's Team fell victim to a red hot Ottawa Fury FC side for the second time in three weekends, falling 1-4 in front of 9,866 at IUPUI's Carroll Stadium

A fairly open start to the match became even more so in the 9th minute, when Sinisa Ubiparipovic took Tom Heinemann's cutback pass towards the spot and finished first time into the right netting.

Both teams would have chances fail throughout the rest of the first half, but the second would go on much differently in terms of balls bracing the back of the net. Ottawa would double their lead in the 54th minute when Andrew Wiedeman collected Ryan Richter's cross from the right side and finished to the far left post on a tight angle.

Right on the hour mark Indy Eleven showed signs of life in attack with its first goal in over six halves of play, substitute forward Duke Lacroix finishing a 30-yard run with a low shot past Fury FC netminder Romuald Peiser to cut the advantage in half at 2-1. But it wouldn't take long for Ottawa to crush Indy's comeback dreams, as two goals in the resulting five minutes through Mauro Eustaquio (62') and Wiedeman (64') took the game out of reach, pushing Ottawa's unbeaten streak to 12 games.

RECAP @ FCE – AUG. 5: In the second game of a three-day, eight-day span for the “Boys in Blue,” Indy Eleven fell 0-2 to FC Edmonton after the home side notched goals on either side of the halftime break.

The home-standing Eddies would control the bulk of the first half, and they would be rewarded for their attacking forays in the 16th minute when defender Albert Watson rose at the back post to head home Lance Laing’s corner kick, putting FC Edmonton up 1-0 early.

Forward Charlie Rugg would breathe some life into the Indy Eleven attack in the final minutes of the opening half, but a header off midfielder Don Smart’s cross would be pushed just wide in the 44th minute while a shot a minute later was fired right into the chest of Eddies ‘keeper Matt VanOekel.

The goal-scorer Watson would be at the heart of another big play in the 64th minute, when Rugg worked his way into the area and tried to chip-and-run his way past the FC Edmonton captain. While the ball appeared to deflect off the defender’s arm, no whistle was blown, which made the visitors even more incredulous five minutes later when a similar play on the other end was whistled. Laing’s attempted flick-on made contact with the arm of Eleven defender Judson McKinney, and Tomi Ameobi would atone for previous close calls during the first half from the spot, sending Keith Cardona the wrong way with a low, left finish to double the Edmonton lead, which they held without much resistance across the final 20 minutes.

RECAP vs. ATL – AUG. 1: Indy Eleven saw its four-game home unbeaten streak and nine-game home goal streak come to an end last Saturday as an early Pedro Mendes goal proved enough to down the home side in front of 9,632 fans at IUPUI’s Carroll Stadium.

Though the “Boys in Blue” looked to control the game early on, Atlanta was the first to capitalize on their opportunity in the 15th minute when Jaime Chavez placed a ball in front of the former Indy Eleven attacker Mendes who buried the ball into the right side netting past Kristian Nicht to give the Silverbacks a 1-0 lead.

The home side dialed up multiple attacking numbers in the ensuing minutes, with a four-shot possession in the 17th minute through Dane Richards, Victor Pineda—who had two attempts on goal—and Kyle Hyland going for naught followed by a 19th minute set-piece opportunity which striker Brian Brown headed on frame. The Atlanta defense, anchored by goalkeeper Stewart Ceus who acrobatically made a diving stop of Brown’s effort, would hold their own however, keeping a stronghold of the game and its score line as they took a 1-0 lead into halftime.

Indiana’s team would come out of the break desperately searching for an equalizer--and would nearly find it across multiple occasions in the second half, including a boost from Dane Richards in the 53rd minute and a Dragan Stojkov rip in the 67th minute among others—but Atlanta’s defense would continuously hold strong and prevent Indy from drawing level en route to their 1-0 victory.

RECAP vs. NYC – JULY 25: Indy Eleven and the New York Cosmos had no luck in breaking their series deadlock, as last Saturday’s 1-1 draw in front of 10,206 fans at Carroll Stadium marked the sixth tie in as many meetings in their all-time series.

The squads would trade control of the opening half throughout the first 45 minutes, but the breakthrough would finally come through the Cosmos in stoppage time. Just moments after Indy’s Brian Brown rang a shot off the crossbar, New York raced back down the field and saw Walter Restrepo bury his shot between Kristian Nicht and the right post off a nice 1-2 sequence with Raul.

Indy Eleven would not hang their heads, though, as they raced back down the field on the ensuing kickoff. Dylan Mares latched onto a ball from Dragan Stojkov and sent it into the right side netting with his left boot to draw the game level moments before the break.

The second half was “pretty tame” as Indy Eleven interim Head Coach and Director of Soccer Operations Tim Regan said – with the notable exception of Erick Norales and Sebastian Guenzatti’s simultaneous sending off in the 65th minute for an altercation at midfield. Without many dangerous opportunities in front of net, however, the game would go on to end in a 1-1 draw – their third such scoreline of the season.

INDY ELEVEN @ MINNESOTA UNITED FC – WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 2015

RECAP @ OTT – JULY 19: Ottawa Fury FC took advantage of several opportunities afforded to them by Indy Eleven in their latest “NASL Class of 2014” clash, capitalizing on three set pieces en route to a 4-2 victory at TD Place.

Fouls committed around the Indy Eleven penalty area would kill the visitors on the day, the first instance coming in the 13th minute when Sinisa Ubiparipovic's free kick to the far post was nodded home by Rafael Alves to put Ottawa on top early. A 25-yard blast by Eleven midfielder Don Smart would even things up in the 33rd minute, but Ottawa captain Richie Ryan would break the deadlock just two minutes later, converting on a free kick from 22 yards.

Tom Heinemann's counter-attack strike in the 56th minute would make life difficult for Indy Eleven, while Ryan's second free kick strike of the day – this time from 25 yards out – in the 65th would all but bury Indiana's Team, putting them down 4-1. Indy's frustrations continued down the stretch when defender Cory Miller saw his second yellow card in the 89th minute and Victor Pineda saw his PK attempt saved by Romulad Peiser two minutes later. However, a silver lining came in the 92nd minute when Judson McKinney scored his first goal in checkers during his Indy Eleven debut in league play.

RECAP vs. CAR – JULY 11: Indy Eleven pushed its undefeated streak to five games last Saturday via a 2-1 comeback win over the Carolina RailHawks, using goals just minutes apart by Wojciech Wojcik and Erick Norales early in the second half to overcome Austin Da Luz's tally towards the end of the first half.

Indy Eleven would force the issue by creating a handful of dangerous chances within the game's opening quarter-hour, but Indy's finishing touch could not be found. Key injuries to midfielders on both sides – Indy's Brad Ring and Carolina's Tiyi Shipalane – saw both removed in the 23rd minute and changed the dynamic of the match, with Carolina seeing more of the ball as the opening half progressed. It would be Shipalane's replacement, Da Luz, moving the scoreboard first with a splendid leaping header off of Nazmi Albadawi's free kick, the 42nd minute tally giving the visitors a 1-0 advantage going into the break.

But Indy Eleven would storm out of the gates again in the second half, and this time it wouldn't take long for the home side to hit paydirt. It was Wojcik tying things up in the 54th minute, notching his second goal in as many weeks by heading home Kyle Hyland's looping cross to the far right post. Then defender Erick Norales took his turn in the 56th minute, slipping past his mark on a dead ball opportunity swung in by Victor Pineda and finishing on the short-hop from the top of the six to put Indy up 2-1. Several squandered chances to boost the lead by the “Boys in Blue” would cause some nervy moments down the stretch, but Indy would hold on for the full three points.

RECAP @ NYC – JULY 5: Indy Eleven and New York met for the fifth time last Sunday at James M. Shuart Stadium – and for the fifth time the two sides finished even, dueling to a 1-1 draw to start their respective NASL Fall Season slates.

It was the “Boys in Blue” cracking the score sheet first in the 26th minute via Wojciech Wojcik. The goal came when a hard-working Dragan Stojkov deflected a Jimmy Mulligan clearance into the air which Wojcik ran onto and volleyed past Cosmos 'keeper Jimmy Maurer for his first goal in an Indy Eleven kit. Indiana's Team would continue to press the action for the rest of the first half and entered the locker room with the 1-0 lead.

Duke Lacroix looked to be a man on a mission on the night, creating numerous scoring chances throughout, including a pair in the opening minutes of the second half – the first requiring a save from Maurer, the second thwarted when his rounding of Maurer on a breakaway went awry due to a heavy touch.

The Cosmos would capitalize on Indy Eleven's inability to double the advantage in the 78th minute. Walter Restrepo danced between Indy defenders and put a shot that forced a Kristian Nicht save as his left post. The save deflected back off of Restrepo's head and rolled into the back of the Indy net to level the game. NYC continued to attack, but an apparent 86th minute goal was wiped away due to a late offside call, negating the best chance for either side down the stretch.

RECAP vs. MORELIA (FRIENDLY) –

JUNE 28: Indy Eleven squared off with Mexican first division side Monarcas Morelia last Sunday in the club's historic inaugural international friendly in front of 6,450 fans at Carroll Stadium. In the end, despite relentless attacking play from both teams up through the final whistle it wouldn't prove enough to make a mark on the score sheet, the match ending in a scoreless draw.

Indy Eleven came out on the attack first in the 7th minute when a Jaime Frias cross found the head of attacker Wojciech Wojcik, but he could not keep it on frame and the ball sailed over the goal. The "Boys in Blue" would not be done there, though, as they notched threatening attacks through Brian Brown and Brad Ring in the 9th and 24th minutes respectively, but neither of those chances would find the back of the net.

Morelia had a dangerous chance of their own on a counter-attack in the 33rd minute. A ball was slotted by midfielder Mauro Cejas for Carlos Ochoa, but Ochoa's shot was saved by the outstretched leg of Indy Eleven 'keeper Kristian Nicht.

The teams would swap shots and possession back and forth over the course of the second half, but the most promising shot came through a free-kick from the 'Monarchs' in the 65th minute. Following a Daniel Keller takedown of a Morelia attacker just outside the box, the visitors set up for a threatening free kick. Dieter Villalpando stood over the ball and fired a low-driving attempt on goal, but luckily for Indy Eleven it hit off the post and was cleared out of the box.

Eventually, neither team would muster up enough attacking power to put the ball in the back of the net and the historic matchup would finish in a 0-0 draw.

RECAP vs. FCE – JUNE 13:

Indy Eleven closed out the Spring Season with the most dominating performance in its brief history on June 13, when it captured a thorough 3-0 win over FC Edmonton on goals from Brian Brown, Dylan Mares and Duke Lacroix.

Indy Eleven went on the attack early and often in the match, starting with Erick Norales in the 8th minute. Victor Pineda sent in a cross for the Honduran international, who hit the ball nicely with his head, but the ball deflected off the crossbar and caromed over the goal.

The breakthrough for Indy Eleven would come through Brown in the 39th minute when his shot from 25 yards out flew past Edmonton keeper Jon Smits and into the lower right corner of the goal to give the home side a 1-0 lead. Mares would convert on a PK just moments later in the 44th minute after Kyle Hyland was brought down in the box by Smits, allowing Indy Eleven some breathing room heading into the halftime break.

The defense held strong for the "Boys in Blue" in the second half – they wouldn't allow a single shot on Kristian Nicht's goal on the night – who tacked on one more goal through the rookie Lacroix, who notched his first professional goal in the 82nd minute off a nice pass from Charlie Rugg.

RECAP @ FTL – JUNE 6: The "Tim Regan era" for Indy Eleven had a familiar tone – a result decided in the final minutes – but this time the drama resulted in the full three points as Victor Pineda's 93rd minute strike gave Indy a 2-1 win at the Fort Lauderdale Strikers last Saturday at Lockhart Stadium.

After controlling possession for much of the first 20 minutes, it was the Strikers going up against the run of play in the 23rd minute. Stefano Pinho flicked on Dani Sanchez's cross from the right flank with a header that barely beat an outstretched Kristian Nicht at his right post to give Fort Lauderdale a 1-0 advantage.

Indy Eleven would be rewarded for its efforts at the end of the first half, as Pineda finished his first goal of the evening in the 44th minute, a 20-yard curler inside the right post that ended a well-constructed build up through right back Marco Franco and midfielders Dragan Stojkov and Dylan Mares, the latter picking up the assist on the play.

A back-and-forth second half appeared to be a stalemate until the final seconds, when substitute forward Duke Lacroix's lengthy run down the left flank ended with a cross that initially resulted in a scuffed shot by Don Smart. However, an unsuccessful clearance attempt landed in the path of Pineda, who first-timed a shot into the upper right corner for a dramatic game-winner, snapping the team's five-game NASL winless streak.

INDY ELEVEN @ MINNESOTA UNITED FC – WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 2015

RECAP vs. TBR – MAY 30: In one of the wildest games in Indy Eleven's brief history, defender Kyle Hyland struck a 25-yard goal at the death to salvage a point from a 2-2 draw at Carroll Stadium.

The match got off to a great start for the home side, which got a goal from Dylan Mares in the 21st minute to reward its attacking energy, but any momentum from the strike would be halted immediately thereafter, as approaching storms would see the match delayed for just over two hours.

It was Tampa that would seize control after the break, as Carmel native Rich Balchan would even things up in the 40th minute to send the match into halftime at 1-1. The visitors would go up in the 68th minute on Maicon Santos' header off a corner kick, which seemingly gave the Rowdies control heading down the stretch.

But things would start to unravel for the visitors, as Santos saw a red card just minutes after his goal for getting involved in an altercation, and Stefan Antonijevic would see red as well for a 2nd yellow card in the 89th minute. Indy would push hard with the 2-man advantage, which finally paid off in the 98th minute when Hyland carried for 25 yards before unleashing a blast that beat Matt Pickens and brushed the underside of the crossbar.

RECAP @ OTT – MAY 23: Indy Eleven was primed to take a point back home from Ottawa last Saturday afternoon, but Fury FC midfielder Nicki Paterson had other ideas, as he slammed home a loose ball in the 88th minute to give the home side a 1-0 victory at TD Place in the Canadian capital.

There wasn't much to write about when it came to attacking soccer last weekend, as the one-goal affair featured just 11 combined shots by the two squads. Indy Eleven didn't go quietly, though, as midfielder Victor Pineda nearly scored with a poke from 12 yards out that missed the left post by mere inches.

While Indy Eleven seemed to have the better of the chances throughout, Ottawa picked up steam as the second half went on, eventually taking the possession battle by the scuff of the neck and putting the Eleven on their heels in the final 10 minutes.

The pressure nearly paid off in the 82nd minute when substitute Paulo Junior saw his blast from the edge of the area skip just wide. But it was Paterson providing the heroics late, as Brad Ring's attempted clearance deep in the area hit off an Ottawa player and fell right to the veteran, who made no mistake with a finish into the right side netting.

RECAP vs. LOUISVILLE CITY FC

(USOC) – MAY 27: Indy Eleven saw its Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup dreams dashed in added extra time for the second straight year, this time at home as USL side Louisville City FC scored twice in the final five minutes to collect a 2-0 win in their third round affair on Wednesday evening at "The Mike."

After waiting out a weather delay that pushed back kickoff an hour, the attack from both teams seemed to start late as well, as the fouls piled up during an increasingly physical first half.

Chances would remain few and far between until late in the match, and Indy Eleven felt it was robbed of a chance to win it from the spot late when Tarek Morad's takedown of Brian Brown in the 89th minute went uncalled. From there it was the home side that seemed to pick things up, but the "Boys in Blue" saw multiple quality chances go wanting as the match progressed into the second stanza of added extra time.

It was Louisville that would finally go in front in the 115th minute, when Nate Polak cutback to find space at the top of the area and sent a one-hopper skipping past a diving Kristian Nicht and inside the right post. The visitors would add an insurance tally four minutes later, when Sydney Rivera finished off a flurry of chances with a rebound tally off a shot of the post.

RECAP vs. MNU – MAY 16: Minnesota United FC used second half goals from Justin Davis and Juliano Vicentini to break a deadlock with Indy Eleven in the standings and on the scoreboard in a 3-1 win last Saturday at a sold-out Carroll Stadium.

The Loons would break through first in the 22nd minute via a dead ball opportunity, as midfielder Kalif Alhassan sent a screaming 28-yard free kick past Indy 'keeper Keith Cardona and into the upper right 90 to put the visitors up.

Minnesota carried that lead into the halftime break, but it would not last for long as Indy Eleven capitalized on its own set piece in the 49th minute. Midfielder Dylan Mares sent a well-struck corner kick to the top of the six, from where midfielder Sergio Peña crushed it into the back of the net with a header to even the score 1-1.

From there, possession would go back-and-forth until Minnesota made the most out of an opportunity in the 63rd minute. Pablo Campos' initial effort was saved by a diving Cardona into the left side of the box, but Davis beat his mark to the rebound and finished into an open net to give Minnesota the lead once again at 2-1.

More and more, Indy would build up strength into the attacking third, but United FC would hold strong and eventually double its advantage. The dagger came in the 83rd minute when substitute forward Christian Ramirez played a through ball past Indy defenders to Vicentini, who slotted a low shot into the bottom right corner of goal to bring the score to its final 3-1 finish.

RECAP vs. JAX – MAY 9: Indy Eleven tasted defeat for the first time in nine games – and eight months dating back to last September – on May 9 in Jacksonville, as Bochy Hoyos' header in the 49th minute would mark the lone goal in Armada FC's 1-0 win at Community First Park.

The first half saw debutant goalkeeper Keith Cardona under fire for most of the opening half hour, but he and the Indy defense bent but didn't break under the barrage of dead ball opportunities created by the home side. The attack showed signs of life in the final 10 minutes of the stanza, but chances by Wojciech Wojcik and Victor Pineda went for naught and the sides entered the break still at 0-0.

The start of the second half saw Jacksonville nearly score off the whistle on a chance by defender Matt Bahner, who would end up playing provider on the goal four minutes later, as his whipped in cross from the right found the head of Hoyos inside the six. The 0-1 deficit woke up the Indy attack, as the "Boys in Blue" ended the match with an edge in shots (17-16) when it was all said and done, but couldn't take advantage of them as they piled up towards the final whistle.

RECAP vs. CAR – APRIL 25: Indy Eleven was five minutes away from sharing the top spot, but a late goal by Carolina RailHawks defender Blake Wagner helped the visitors claim a point from a 1-1 draw at a rainy IUPUI Carroll Stadium on April 25.

The sold out home crowd of 10,524 was encouraged by a 6th minute own goal off RailHawks defender Daniel Scott, but were deflated after Wagner's late heroics cost their Eleven two valuable points in the standings.

The home side was buzzing early, and Indy Eleven's high energy – and high pressure – paid off just six minutes in with an own goal off the foot of Carolina's Daniel Scott. With a perfectly timed through ball over the top, Indy forward Wojciech Wojcik found a streaking Charlie Rugg down the right side. The LA Galaxy loanee's cross into the six would be deflected in by Scott, who was sliding towards the Carolina goal as he tried to clear the ball away.

Indy Eleven's repeated failed chances to double the lead – most notably a trio of shots in quick succession in the 78th minute that were either saved by Carolina netminder Hunter Gilstrap or blocked by defenders – came back to haunt them in the 85th minute, when Tiyi Shipalane's cross from the right went to the opposite side of the area where it found a waiting Blake Wagner. The RailHawks defender gathered calmly and smashed a shot from 12 yards past Kristian Nicht and inside the right post to even the match at 1-1, which is how it would end.

RECAP @ SAS – APRIL 18: Just when Indy Eleven looked destined to claim a third straight 1-1 draw to begin the season last Saturday at San Antonio, late substitute midfielder Sergio Pena came to the rescue, his 45-yard bomb in the 89th minute making the difference in a stunning 2-1 victory at Toyota Field over the defending NASL champion.

Indy's backline bent on a couple of occasions in the first half but did not break, as the squads entered the halftime break still locked at 0-0. San Antonio took advantage of an Indy defensive error in the 52nd minute, when Cesar Elizondo stole a poor pass 40 yards from goal, slalomed through three Indy defenders and played Omar Cummings into the area, where the Jamaican slotted low and to the left of Kristian Nicht to give the home side a 1-0 lead. That advantage would be short-lived however, as Erick Norales nodded home Dylan Mares' free kick at the far left post in the 64th minute, a goal that evened things up at 1-1 and brought considerable life back into the "Boys in Blue".

That would set up Pena's late heroics, as the Honduran midfielder, who entered in the 81st minute, accepted fellow substitute Wojciech Wojcik's laid-off header with his chest 10 yards inside midfield. One touch and one bounce later, Pena let rip one of his trademark long-distance shots, the 45-yard effort finding the space between the bottom of the crossbar and the hands of back-peddling goalkeeper Jon Kempin, allowing Indy to steal the full three points and leap into 2nd place in the NASL Spring Season standings.

RECAP vs. NYC – APRIL 11: Indy Eleven continued a trio of streaks with its 1-1 draw against the New York Cosmos last Saturday night in its 2015 home opener at Carroll Stadium, extending its undefeated streaks in regular season play (7 games) and the Cosmos (4 games) while also running its regular season home sellout streak to 15 games (10,524).

Indy Eleven forward Brian Brown would give the Hoosier State side its first-ever lead against the Cosmos in the 12th minute, when he caught New York 'keeper Jimmy Maurer off his line and chipped home from 30 yards out. New York would gradually assert its will on the match, paying off in the 65th minute when superstar striker Raul gained some space at the top of the six and headed home Walter Restrepo's cross.

RECAP @ ATL – APRIL 4: Indy Eleven fans got used to holding their breath last season ... and that carried over into its season opener April 4th in Atlanta, which Don Smart tied up in second half stoppage time to earn a 1-1 draw at Silverbacks Park.

Good chances were hard to come by in the first 45 minutes for both sides, but the game opened up shortly after the halftime whistle when Shaka Bangura's late run into the area after a failed Indy clearance allowed him to slot home and put Atlanta up 1-0.

The Silverbacks were content to absorb pressure and counter it out to the end, a plan that seemed destined to work until Greg Janicki picked out Jaime Frias' run down the left flank in the 92nd minute. After chesting down with his first touch his second took him into the penalty area, where he was hacked down to earn the late PK. Smart stutter-stepped and sent 'keeper C.J. Cochran diving the wrong way before coolly slotting inside the right post to even it up at the death.
