Loons Clinch Playoff Spot

With a 2-1 win at home, Minnesota United became the third team to secure a spot in The Championship. An early goal from Pablo Campos gave Minnesota the lead over the visiting Fort Lauderdale Strikers. Nearing the end of the first half, Campos provided the assist for Daniel Mendes' goal to double the Loons' lead. The Strikers fought back and cut the difference in half with a goal from PC midway through the second half. United was able to hold on to get the victory, moving within striking distance of the Fall Championship.

United Makes Final Road Trip of the Season

Postseason-bound Minnesota United travels to face Midwest rivals Indy Eleven on Saturday, looking to take over the top spot in the NASL Fall Standings. Indy has not been in good form this Fall, with only two wins in its last ten matches and none in the past five. Languishing near the bottom of the standings, Indy is all but eliminated from postseason contention. That doesn't mean the "Boys in Blue" won't try to play spoiler, as they did last year, to prevent Minnesota from clinching the Fall Championship.

ABOUT INDY ELEVEN

Founded in 2013, Indy Eleven began play in the 2014 NASL Spring Season. The interest for a team in Indianapolis began in 2011 with the creation of and support from the Brickyard Battalion, the team's supporters group.

The name of the team not only represents the 11 players on the field, but also the 11th Regiment of Indiana Volunteers who fought in the Civil War. The team has been an incredible off-field success, gaining over 7,000 season ticket holders before ever playing a game. Despite not winning a home match until October 2014, the team from the Circle City sold out each of its home games in 2014.

Indy has found more success this season than last - however, it still sits near the bottom of the table. The temporary loss of Kristian Nicht, who was loaned to the Montreal Impact early in the season, contributed to a slow start that the club has struggled to overcome.

ABOUT THE NORTH AMERICAN SOCCER LEAGUE

The North American Soccer League (NASL) is a professional soccer league with eleven teams in the United States and Canada. It is sanctioned by the United States Soccer Federation (U.S. Soccer) as the Division II league in the American league system. Its headquarters are in New York City.

The league is named for the original North American Soccer League. The modern NASL was founded in 2009, and began play in 2011 following a 2010 season that saw NASL and USL teams play in a combined temporary Division II league.

The NASL uses a split-season schedule running from April to early November, with a four-week break in July. The spring and fall champions, along with the two teams with best combined records, meet in a four-team single elimination tournament known as The Championship. The winner of the final claims the Soccer Bowl at the end of the season.

2015 North American Soccer League Fall Championship

Minnesota United finished the Spring Season with a 3-5-2 record, missing out on its second Spring Championship by six points. Minnesota has already booked its place in the postseason, and is now fighting for home field advantage. United needs to overtake the Ottawa Fury in the final weeks and win the Fall Championship to be able to host a semifinal game.

The NASL uses split-season format, first implemented in 2013, with separate Spring and Fall seasons. The winners of the Spring and Fall seasons along with two remaining teams with the best overall record will play in The Championship, the league's four-team playoff. In the event the same team wins both the Spring and Fall championships, the top three teams with the best overall records will join them in The Championship.
