FULL THROTTLE

Last week saw one of the most exciting matches of the NASL season, as the Miami FC and the Carolina RailHawks played out to a 3-3 draw.

The Miami FC kicked off the scoring in just the 7th minute when Jaime Chavez finished off a great passing sequence.

As halftime approached Carolina would equalize but Poku would give the advantage back to the Miami FC.

The RailHawks would push back in the second half scoring two unanswered goals.

With time running out on the Miami FC, it was Chavez who stepped up. In the 80th minute, Dario Cvitanich lofted a great ball over the top to a streaking Chavez, who finished the chance with an equally great volley.

JUST ENOUGH

Indy Eleven took on FC Edmonton last week, looking to keep stay atop the fall season standings.

Greg Janicki would find the back of the net in just the 13th minute. He easily headed home a free kick from Dylan Mares.

Defensive-minded FC Edmonton did what they could to get back in the match. They would control possession and outshoot Indy but struggled to find an equalizer.

The Eleven's defense held on well, absorbing nearly 80 minutes of Edmonton attacks.

Indy walked away with three points but it would not be enough as they dropped to second in the fall standings.

MATCH NOTES

IT IS AS EASY AS 3

The Miami FC scored three goals in a match for the first time in team history last week. The few times that other teams have been able to score three goals in a match this season, things have always gone well.

There have been 82 matches played in 2016 and only 19 of those contests saw a team net three goals.

In those 19 matches, the team to score three goals has never lost, including the Miami FC's draw against Carolina. Last week's match was also the first time two teams have cracked the three-goal mark in 2016.

While most teams score their goals at home, only seven teams have hit three goals in a match while on the road, including the Miami FC.

PROCRASTINATION

Indy Eleven started the fall season with a lot of pressure to try and keep their title and more than once, they had needed late game heroics to earn their points. Things have not changed as the fall season has already seen its fair share of close calls.

Game one saw them draw Puerto Rico with a stoppage time goal.

They would suffer their first loss three weeks later at the hands of Minnesota, a team they beat a week earlier.

They are coming off another draw in which they scored early and had to defend for the majority of the match.

MIAMI FC PLAYERS TO WATCH

Jaime Chavez: Chavez is in the midst of a fall season renaissance.

In the first three matches of the fall, Chavez was brought down twice in the box and also forced a red card tackle from Jacksonville's Beto Navarro.

The last two contests have seen Chavez triple his spring season goal total. He scored the game winner against Jacksonville and two against the RailHawks.

Poku: has been a welcomed addition to the Miami FC midfield bringing speed, strength and aggressiveness to the offense.

In just four matches, Poku has already netted two goals. He has also put all five of his shots on target.

Poku's presence has not only been felt on offense, but on the defense side as well. He has won 25 duels in just four matches, while collecting four interceptions.

ALESSANDRO NESTA HEAD COACH

Widely considered to be one of the greatest defenders ever, Nesta made over 400 Serie A appearances in a 20-year career spread between Lazio and AC Milan, winning domestic and European honours with both clubs.

Nesta was a member of the Italian national side for a decade from his debut in 1996, earning 78 caps in total. He competed at the 1996 Olympic Football Tournament, three European Championships and three FIFA World Cups, including the team that won the 2006 World Cup.

Nesta was introduced as the first head coach of the Miami FC in September 2015.
