Indy Eleven

2016 Spring Record (W-T-L)

0-0-0, 0 points

T-1st place

Series History

Tampa Bay is 1-4-1(W-T-L) against Indy all-time. In 2015, the Rowdies went 0-2-1 against the Eleven, failing to beat Indy in any of their three meetings last season. Tampa Bay's lone win over Indy was on July 19, 2014 in Indianapolis with Georgi Hristov scoring an 89th minute winner. Tampa Bay and Indy have drawn 2-2 and 1-1 in their two previous meetings at Al Lang Stadium.

Opening Day Results

The Tampa Bay Rowdies have a strong record in season openers*, going 3-2-1 (W-T-L) on opening day in the modern era, with their only loss being at the Puerto Rico Islanders in 2012. Tampa Bay's record in home openers is unblemished at 2-4-0 (W-T-L), but the Rowdies have drawn three consecutive openers at Al Lang Stadium, 0-0 vs Carolina in 2013, 1-1 vs FC Edmonton in 2014 and 0-0 vs Minnesota United FC last season. The Rowdies opened with a 3-1 win over the San Antonio Scorpions in San Antonio last season.

Does not include Fall Season openers, only first league games of the calendar year*

Scouting Indy

The Indy Eleven arrive in St. Petersburg with a new head coach, Tim Hankinson. Hankinson was hired Indy in December after its previous head coach, Juergen Sommer, was dismissed in June. Assistant Coach Tim Regan took over on an interim basis for the remainder of the season and was retained by Hankinson as an assistant. Hankinson is a former head coach of the Tampa Bay Mutiny.

The Eleven also boast a revamped roster ahead of the 2016 season, headlined by goalkeeper Jon Busch, defenders Colin Falvey and Nemanja Vukovic, midfielder Siniša Ubiparipović and forward Eamon Zayed among other additions.

Indy played a nine-game preseason slate (one match against an NASL team, five matches against USL teams and three matches against NCAA teams) and compiled a record of 2-4-3 (W-T-L). Indy's biggest win of preseason was a 4-0 victory over Arizona United SC (USL) and its biggest defeat was to Ottawa Fury FC (NASL) 3-0. The Eleven drew 0-0 against the University of Louisville in its last match.

Connecting the Squads

Rowdies midfielder Walter Ramirez was a member of Indy's inaugural squad in 2014, making seven total appearances for the Eleven before departing midseason.

Indy has no former Rowdies on its roster.

Stuart Campbell – Head Coach

Stuart Campbell was appointed to the position of Tampa Bay Rowdies head coach on August 26, 2015. He had previously led the team against Minnesota United FC on August 22.

Campbell, 38, has been with the Rowdies since December 27, 2011, originally joining as a player for the 2012 season before transitioning to roles as an assistant coach and now head coach. In his first season with the Rowdies, Campbell played 31 matches as a defensive stalwart, guiding the Rowdies to the NASL Championship.

He served a player and assistant coach in 2013, before becoming a full-time assistant coach last season and resuming that in 2015. In August of last year, he was appointed head coach.

Campbell spent most of his playing career with Bristol Rovers, making 288 appearances for the Gas between 2004 and 2011. He was appointed captain in 2006 and led the club to the quarterfinals of the 2007-2008 FA Cup, the best result in Rovers’ history. In 2011, Campbell was named interim manager with twelve games remaining in the season.

Campbell also played for Leicester City, Birmingham City and Grimsby Town in his playing career before joining the Rowdies. He also earned 14 caps for the Scottish National Team at the Under-21 level.

About the Rowdies

The Tampa Bay Rowdies are a professional soccer club and a member of the North American Soccer League (NASL). The Rowdies home stadium is Al Lang Stadium in downtown St. Petersburg, Fla. The Rowdies were reborn in 2010 and quickly reestablished themselves as a premier club in the United States, winning the NASL Soccer Bowl Championship in 2012.

The Rowdies attracted a sellout crowd to their first home game in May 2010, and have continued to boast strong local fan support.

The original Tampa Bay Rowdies were born in 1975 as an expansion team in the North American Soccer League (NASL). From 1975-1984, the Rowdies were one of the most successful teams in the NASL, winning the Soccer Bowl Championship in 1975 and reaching the finals in 1978 and 1979. The Rowdies featured iconic players such as Rodney Marsh, Derek Smethurst and Steve Wegerle while winning over the hearts of the people of Tampa Bay and creating an internationally-recognized brand.

North American Soccer League (NASL)

The new North American Soccer League (NASL) was officially founded in November 2009 when a group of second-division men's professional soccer team owners banded together to form North American Soccer League, LLC for the purpose of creating a team-owned and operated professional soccer league in the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico.

In February 2011, the NASL received provisional recognition from the United States Soccer Federation as the exclusive second division men's professional league (D-2) and the inaugural season kicked off on the evening of April 9, 2011. The 2016 format continues the split season format and The Championship, a four-team postseason tournament. The winners of the Spring and Fall Seasons will earn berths in The Championship and be joined by the next two best teams in the Combined table.

The NASL member teams are: Carolina RailHawks, FC Edmonton, Fort Lauderdale Strikers, Indy Eleven, Jacksonville Armada FC, Miami FC, Minnesota United FC, New York Cosmos, Ottawa Fury FC, Puerto Rico FC, Rayo OKC and the Tampa Bay Rowdies. For more information about the NASL, visit www.NASL.com. Follow the NASL on Twitter @NASLOfficial and Facebook at <http://www.Facebook.com/NASL.fans>.

Al Lang Stadium

Fully renovated this year and situated on the downtown St. Petersburg waterfront next to the Salvador Dali Museum and Mahaffey Theater, the iconic stadium used to be home to the Tampa Bay Rays for their spring training. Over the years, several other Major League Baseball teams, including the Baltimore Orioles, New York Mets, New York Yankees, St. Louis Cardinals, have used the stadium as their headquarters for spring training.

The St. Petersburg Athletic Park at the current site of Al Lang Stadium was the spring home for the Boston Braves and New York Yankees from 1923 until after World War II, hosting such greats such as Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig and Stan Musial. The first incarnation of the current field was built for the St. Louis Cardinals in 1947.
