ABOUT FC EDMONTON

FC Edmonton was formed in February 2010 by the Fath Group, with the plan to enter professional play in 2011. The Eddies, as they are called by fans, played an exhibition season in 2010, prior to joining the NASL in 2011 as the league began its first season.

Making the playoffs in their first season, Edmonton looked poised to be a contender in the NASL. However, a last place finish in 2012 caused them to make several changes to the team. They have improved in 2013, finishing 5th and 6th in the Spring and Fall Seasons, but finished 9th in the 2014 Spring. A late-season surge saw the Eddies finish 3rd in the Fall and miss The Championship by just three points.

Edmonton has a major focus on its academy and developing young, local talent. Six players on its roster are under age 21, three of which are 18, making them the youngest team in the NASL with an average age of 24.5 years old.

UNITED VS EDMONTON QUICK FACTS

- Edmonton keeper John Smits was on loan with Montreal Impact of MLS for its CONCACAF Champions League Final against Club América (Liga MX).
- FC Edmonton has yet to shut out Minnesota.
- Edmonton has only played in the U.S. once this season – its season opener against the Jacksonville Armada.
- Though Minnesota has never lost to the Eddies at home, it has been defeated four times at Clarke Stadium.
- FC Edmonton concedes its first goal in the 20th minute on average. Its first goal comes on average in the 35th.
- The last four matches in the series on turf have been split two games each. Both teams scored six goals total across the four matches.
- The Flyover Cup began in 2011 after two acts of charity united the teams' supporters groups. The Dark Clouds made a donation to help Alberta residents who lost their homes after the Slave Lake fire destroyed 12,000 acres of the province. About a week later, the Edmonton Supporters Group (ESG) returned the favor after a tornado devastated several neighborhoods in Minneapolis. The two groups used the mutual charity to begin a supporters-run cup, played for in the regular season series between Edmonton and Minnesota each year. Edmonton won the first, but United has held the cup for three straight years.

ABOUT THE NORTH AMERICAN SOCCER LEAGUE

The North American Soccer League (NASL) is a professional soccer league with eleven teams in the United States and Canada. It is sanctioned by the United States Soccer Federation (U.S. Soccer) as the Division II league in the American league system. Its headquarters are in New York City.

The league is named for the original North American Soccer League. The modern NASL was founded in 2009, and began play in 2011 following a 2010 season that saw NASL and USL teams play in a combined temporary Division II league.

The NASL uses a split-season schedule running from April to early November, with a four-week break in July. The spring and fall champions, along with the two teams with best combined records, meet in a four-team single elimination tournament known as The Championship. The winner of the final claims the Soccer Bowl at the end of the season.

2015 North American Soccer League Spring Championship

2014 NASL Spring Champion and North American Supporters Trophy winner Minnesota United began its 2015 campaign against the Tampa Bay Rowdies on April 11th with a 0-0 draw following a bye in the opening week. United will be looking to continue its success from last season and return the The Championship to play for the Soccer Bowl trophy.

The NASL will continue to use the split-season format in 2015, with separate Spring and Fall seasons. The winners of the Spring and Fall seasons along with two remaining teams with the best overall record will play in The Championship, the league's four-team postseason tournament. In the event the same team wins both the Spring and Fall championships, the top three teams with the best overall records will join them in The Championship.
