

Fury FC Host Minnesota United FC in Home Opener April 19

Ottawa Kicks Off Inaugural NASL Season April 12 Away to Fort Lauderdale

- For Immediate Release -

Thursday, December 19, 2013 (Ottawa, ON) – The Ottawa Fury FC will play their historic first North American Soccer League (NASL) game on April 12, 2014 in Fort Lauderdale Fla., followed one-week later by the home opener at Carleton University against Minnesota United FC. Those games and the full NASL Spring Season schedule were announced by the League earlier today.

“We are tremendously excited to see our inaugural Spring Season schedule,” said Fury FC President John Pugh. “We look forward to hosting the 2011 Soccer Bowl Champions from Minnesota in our home opener and the Railhawks from Carolina, the overall point champions in 2013, the following week. Sandwiched between those first two home games is an Amway Canadian Championship game against Edmonton on April 23 with a semi-final tie against the Montreal Impact on the line. What a beginning for professional soccer in Ottawa!”

“The NASL is an extremely competitive and high-calibre brand of soccer and we’re excited to learn the order of our opposition for the Spring Season,” said head coach Marc Dos Santos. “There is no easy game in the NASL and that’s what makes it exciting for fans. I’m looking forward to seeing their faces and hearing their excitement in April and throughout the season.”

“The fact is that our Spring 2014 season will be one of the most intense and competitive competitions in global sport with nine matches determining the spring champion and host of NASL Soccer Bowl 2014,” said Chairman of the NASL Board of Directors Aaron Davidson. “The coaches and players know that they can’t play for draws whether they are playing away or at home because winning the championship will likely come down to one or two points. I’m excited to see our teams leave it all out on the field in this sprint to the Spring Championship ahead of the World Cup break.”
