

RAILHAWKS SOCCOCTOBERFEST

PRESENTED BY: LONERIDER BREWING COMPANY

The Carolina RailHawks are getting ready to throw the Triangle's best homebrewed beer festival!

It's time to recruit local homebrewers to participate, and we would love to have you join the party. It'll be a great chance to show off your beer, meet other brewers and beer fans, and enjoy the festival atmosphere.

When: Saturday, September 8th. 5pm-6:45pm. Carolina RailHawks home game immediately follows the festival.

Where: WakeMed Soccer Park. 101 Soccer Park Drive. Cary, NC 27511.

What you have to do: Bring 5-gallon kegs of your best homebrews. How many you bring is up to you. Pour your beers to the festival attendees. Answer their questions. Accept their compliments. Have fun.

Prizes: Prize packages will be awarded to the brewers with the most popular beers.

Logistics: All brewers will be provided with table space to serve their beer and plenty of ice to keep their beer cold. However, you must bring your own dispensing equipment and any creature comforts that you require (e.g., chair, canopy for shade, snacks, etc).

Tickets: Each brewer will receive admission to the festival and the RailHawks soccer game. Furthermore, each brewer will receive enough festival and game tickets so that they can bring 4 guests.

How To Register: Homebrewers must be registered in order to participate in the festival. Please contact Bill Dubas and Kevin Thorngren, the festival organizers, at organizer@loneriderbeer.com to get on the list and to answer any questions. Registration ends on Saturday, September 1st, so don't delay.

Thank you,
The Carolina RailHawks
